

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTE.

Statutes comprised in this volume were, with the excepthose relating to Hertford College, made by the Univerexford Commissioners under section 12 of the Universities and Cambridge Act, 1877. The Statutes as to certain thips and Exhibitions in Hertford College were made by llege, and approved by the Commissioners, under section the same Act.

ach Statute, or—in the case of Colleges—collection of s, was issued by the Commissioners in a separate form, it a question of some difficulty to determine the order in hey should be arranged for the purposes of the present tion. The Statutes made for Colleges are naturally under the Colleges to which they respectively relate, the s themselves being arranged according to the reputed f their foundation. Those made for the University are d on the principle which upon due consideration seemed kely to be convenient for reference.

Statutes have been reprinted from copies issued from vy Council Office after receiving the approval of Herin Council. A few errors in typography and punctuate been corrected.

STATUTES MADE FOR THE UNIVERSITY.

A.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the operation of Statutes made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

L.S.

Concerning the Operation of Statutes made under the Powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

1. In this Statute the expression 'new Statutes' shall mean any Statutes made or to be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University or for a College.

The expression 'existing Professor' shall mean a person holding a Professorship to which he was elected or appointed before the sixth day of October, 1880; and the words 'Professor' and 'Professorship' shall respectively include University Readers and Readerships.

In this Statute and in all new Statutes made for the University, including the Statute concerning a Visitatorial Board, the words 'Professor' and 'Professorship' shall (except where Regius Professorships are expressly excluded or a different construction is required by the context) include Regius Professors and Professorships.

2. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and except where it is otherwise provided in such new Statutes or any of them, every new Statute made for the University shall take effect on the approval of it by Her Majesty in Council; and the regulations of existing Statutes, so far as they relate to matters regulated by any such new Statute, shall be thenceforth void.

TEMPORARY SAVING CLAUSES.

- 3. No existing Professor shall receive augmented emoluments under new Statutes unless and until he shall, by writing under his hand delivered to the Vice-Chancellor, have consented to be subject, in respect of the duties to be performed by him as Professor, and of his residence, as well as in other respects, to any new Statutes relating to his office.
- 4. Unless and until he shall have so consented, no existing Professor shall in respect of the duties to be performed by him, his residence, or the right to receive fees from Students attending his lectures, be subject to the provisions of such new Statutes, except any provisions expressly made applicable to existing Professors. But every such Professor shall, in respect of the matters aforesaid, continue to be subject to the Statutory regulations relating to his office which were in force at the time of the approval of the new Statutes, and to such power as the University then had to vary or add to those regulations.

Provided as follows:-

- i. Clause 3 shall not apply to any Professor who would by giving consent as aforesaid become subject to the Particular Regulations made applicable to the Professors mentioned in Schedules A. and C., or either of them, annexed to the Statute concerning the duties of Professors, unless the emoluments of his office, exclusive of fees, exceed six hundred pounds per annum, or would, by the augmentation, be raised above that sum.
- ii. Where any Professor is by existing regulations required to reside in the University during part of a period in each Academical year commencing on the tenth day of October, the period shall henceforth be reckoned as commencing on the first day of September.
- 5. The Particular Regulations applicable to the Professors mentioned in the above-mentioned Schedules A. and C. shall not apply to any Professor appointed since the sixth day of October 1880, or hereafter to be appointed, unless and until the emoluments of his office, exclusive of fees, shall exceed six hundred pounds per annum. But he shall in respect of the aforesaid matters be subject to the Statutory regulations previously in force in relation to his office, or to any new regulations which the University may by Statute make respecting it.

ENOLUMENTS OF PROFESSORS.

- 6. The right of every Professor to whose office emoluments are assigned from the revenues of any College to receive such emoluments shall accrue when and as the appropriation takes effect; and the provisions of new Statutes shall be without prejudice to the right of every existing Professor to receive emoluments the same in amount as he would have been entitled to if such new Statutes had not been made.
- 7. Until any provision made by new Statutes for the maintenance of a Professorship wholly or in part out of the revenues of any College shall have taken effect, the holder of the Professorship for the time being shall continue to be entitled to receive from the University Chest the same emoluments as heretofore, subject to such power (if any) as the University has heretofore had to increase or diminish such emoluments.
- 8. When and as the provision takes effect, payments to the Professor out of the revenues of the College shall, unless the College Statutes otherwise direct, or the University otherwise determine, be in substitution pro tanto for the payments he would have been entitled to receive from the University Chest.
- 9. New Statutes providing for the maintenance wholly or in part of a Professorship out of the revenues of a College, or assigning emoluments to a Professorship payable out of the University Chest or from other sources, shall not be deemed to deprive the University of the power to assign, should it think fit, any additional payment to the Professor from the University Chest, provided that the whole yearly emoluments of the Professor, exclusive of fees, be not in any case raised to more than nine hundred pounds, and that due regard be had to the duties imposed on the Professor and the amount of residence required of him.

COLLEGE PAYMENTS TO UNIVERSITY PURPOSES.

10. Money appropriated by a College under its Statutes to the maintenance of Professorships or to other University purposes may (subject to any provisions relative thereto in such Statutes) be applied by the College to such purposes in the way of immediate payment, or may be paid (subject to such appropriation) to the Curators of the University Chest, or may be set apart and paid to a 'University Purposes Fund' to be held and ret by the College, and invested by the College from time to Moneys paid, subject to appropriation, to the Curator the University Chest shall be applied by them to the University purposes directed by such appropriation, and shall be recl as payments by the College for University purposes. Moneys as above mentioned to a 'University Purposes Fund' shall paid with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council of the versity, but not otherwise) be reckoned as paid to a University, purpose within the meaning of Clause 7 of the Statute conce College contributions for University purposes. The fund so fc and the interest and accumulations of it (if any) shall be plicable exclusively to the University purposes mentioned is College Statutes or some of them; it shall not be deemed a fund for a College purpose within the meaning of Clau sub-section i, of the above-mentioned University Statute; payments made from it shall not, in the application of Statute, be reckoned as payments out of the revenue or College.

FIRST ELECTION TO NEW PROFESSORSHIPS.

11. Where by new Statutes provision is made for the blishment of a new Professorship, the first election to it shall have completely into operation, or sooner if the University by Decree shadetermine; but not so as to increase or accelerate any clon the revenues of a College created by such new Statute the maintenance of the Professorship.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University w the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge 1877, section 30.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

B. GENERAL STATUTES RELATING TO PROFESSORSHIPS AND READERSHIPS.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning Electoral Boards and tenure of Professorships in the said University.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

LA

Concerning Electoral Boards and Tenure of Professorships.

WHEREVER by a Statute made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, it is provided that the election to a Professorship shall be vested in a Board of Electors, the Board shall, unless the Statute otherwise provide, be composed of not fewer than five nor more than seven persons.

The University may from time to time by Statute regulate or vary the constitution of any such Board; save only that, where by any clause or provision, not made subject to this power, it is provided that one or more of the electors shall always be a person or persons answering to a specified designation or nominated or appointed in a specified manner, the exercise of this power shall be subject to and controlled by such clause or provision.

- 2. Every Professorship shall, unless it be otherwise provided in any Statute or instrument of foundation relating to it and in force for the time being, be deemed to be tenable for life, subject to the liability of the holder, to vacate it by deprivation for refficient cause; but this provision shall not affect any power which the University has to vary or limit by Statute the tenure of any Professorship.
- 3. No Professorship shall, unless by virtue of express provision in any Statute or instrument of foundation relating to it and in force for the time being, be tenable with another Professiship within the University, nor with a University Readership.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University, with the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge A 1877, section 30.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

A Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford concerning University Readers.

We, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument in writing under our seal make the following Statute for the University of Oxford:—

- 1. THERE shall be University Readers appointed to lecture and give instruction within the University, and receiving stipends out of the Common University Fund.
- 2. Four Readers at least (exclusive of Readers maintained from other sources than the Common University Fund) shall be appointed before the thirty-first day of December 1883, and three more at least before the thirty-first day of December 1884; and the whole number of such Readers shall never be less than seven.
- 3. Every University Reader shall be appointed to lecture and give instruction in a specified subject or branch of study, which may at or before the time of his appointment be defined by Statute or Decree of the University, or, in the absence thereof, by the Delegates of the Common University Fund. He shall hold his office for a period not exceeding five years.

- 4. The University may from time to time by Statute or Decree make regulations, not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions, respecting the tenure and conditions of tenure, duties, residence, emolument, and mode of appointment and removal, of Readers or any Reader, or any other matters relating to Readers which the University may deem it expedient to regulate by Statute. Unless and until this power shall have been exercised, and subject thereto, the regulations respecting University Readers shall be as follows:—
 - (a) Every appointment of a University Reader shall be made by the Delegates of the Common University Fund, or by persons, not fewer than three in number, nominated for that purpose by the Delegates.
 - (b) Every University Reader shall hold his office for five years, but shall be re-eligible.
 - (c) He shall receive from the Common University Fund three hundred pounds per annum.
 - (d) He shall in every year lecture in each of the three University Terms (Easter and Trinity Terms being counted as one). His lectures shall extend over a period not less than seven weeks in each Term nor than twenty-one weeks in the whole, and he shall lecture twice at least in each week. In addition to these lectures he shall, twice at least in every week in which he lectures, receive Students desirous of informal instruction and other assistance in the studies with which his Readership is connected.
 - (e) He may require from Students receiving the informal instruction and assistance mentioned in the foregoing regulation payment of a fee not exceeding two pounds for any University Term. With this exception, his lectures shall be open to all members of the University, without payment of any fee.
- 5. It shall be the duty of every Reader to lecture and give instruction in the subject or branch of study for which he is appointed, and in arranging the subjects and times of his lectures it shall also be his duty to have regard to the arrangements made or proposed to be made by the Professors, if any, lecturing in the same department of study. He shall be liable to admonition, deprivation of emolument, and deprivation of office by the Visita-torial Board for the same causes and in the same manner as a Professor, and the power of the Vice-Chancellor or of the Visitatorial Board to grant a temporary dispensation from statutory duties shall extend and be applicable to him.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

A Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford concerning Boards of Faculties.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument in writing under our Seal make the following Statute for the University of Oxford:—

- 1. Ix and for the purposes of this Statute the word 'Faculty' shall denote any branch or aggregate of branches of the studies pursued in the University which for the time being shall be represented by a separate Board.
- 2. In the construction of this Statute Easter and Trinity Terms are (unless where either of them is expressly mentioned) to be counted together as one Term.
- 3. There shall be a Board for each of the following Faculties; (namely,)

Theology;

Law;

Arts;

Natural Science.

- 4. The Faculty of Arts shall be deemed to include those studies now included in Arts which shall not be included in any other Faculty. The Faculty of Natural Science shall include the studies within the departments of Medicine and Mathematics, as well as those within the department of Natural Science.
 - 5. The University may, if it think fit, by a Statute or Statutes made from time to time, determine that the Faculty of Arts shall be divided into two or more Faculties, and may in like manner divide the Faculty of Natural Science. The University may also, if it think fit, from time to time institute new Faculties.

- 6. The Board of each Faculty shall include, as members ex officio, Professors and University Readers lecturing in the subjects of the Faculty; it shall include also a number of elected members, which shall in no case exceed that of the ex officio members, and may further include a less number of co-opted members chosen by the Board.
 - 7. Any person may be a member of more Boards than one.
- 8. The first election of members for each Board shall be held on a day to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor within six months after the day on which this Statute shall have come into operation. Provided that the University may, if it think fit, defer such first election for a further period not exceeding three months. The meeting for election shall be convened by the Secretary; or, if no Secretary shall then have been appointed, by the Registrar of the University, and the Secretary or the Registrar shall return the names of the persons elected to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause them to be published.
- 9. The Board of each Faculty shall have the following duties and powers:—

It shall be the duty of the Board to prepare and send to the Vice-Chancellor for publication—

- (a) Before the end of each Term a List of the lectures which are to be given in the ensuing Term in the subjects of the Faculty under the authority of the University, or of any College, or of the Delegates of Students not attached to any College or Hall, and are to be open to persons other than the members of any one College, or (as the case may be) other than the Students not attached to any College or Hall.
- (b) In Easter or Trinity Term annually a general scheme or statement showing, as far as may be, the lectures to be given as aforesaid during the course of the ensuing Academical year.
- (c) In Michaelmas Term, or at such other time in each year as the University may by Statute appoint, a summary statement of the lectures given during the preceding year in the subjects of the Faculty by Professors and University Readers, and of all other lectures which have been advertised in the published lists of the Faculty and given in conformity therewith. The Board shall add to this statement such further information (if any) respecting the studies and instruction of the Faculty as the University may by Statute require, and may point out any deficiencies in the provision made for instruction, and make recommendations for supplying them.

- 10. It shall be the duty of every Professor and University Reader to send to the Secretary of the Boards of Faculties timely notice of the lectures he proposes to give in any of the subjects of any Faculty to which he belongs, pursuant to the Statutes and Regulations in force for the time being, and in arranging his lectures to have due and reasonable regard to the recommendations of the Board of the Faculty; but this duty shall not be deemed to preclude him from the free use of his discretion in selecting for his lectures any subject or part of a subject which he deems most advisable within the province assigned to him by Statute.
- 11. The University may from time to time, by Statute, make regulations, not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions, respecting the constitution, powers, duties, and proceedings of the Boards of Faculties, the mode of electing, and the persons who may elect, those members of such Board who are not members ex officio, and any other matters relating to them which it may appear expedient to regulate by Statute, and may assign to them such further duties and make such further provision for the performance of such duties, as well as of the duties hereby assigned to them, as the University may judge to be expedient.

Unless and until such regulations shall be made by the University, and subject to any regulations which may be so made, the constitution and proceedings of the Boards of Faculties shall be regulated as follows:—

- i. The ex officio members of the several Boards shall be the Professors and Readers mentioned in the Schedule annexed to this Statute, and such other Professors and Readers, if any, as the University may from time to time add to them by Statute or Decree.
- ii. The elected members of each Board shall be persons chosen from time to time by majority of votes at meetings of electors qualified as herein-after mentioned. No person shall be eligible who is not a member of Convocation. Every person certified by the Head of any College, or by the Delegates of Students not attached to any College or Hall to be authorised by the College or by the Delegates (as the case may be) to lecture or give instruction in the subjects of the Faculty, or any of them, shall be qualified to act as an elector. Of the members of each Board chosen at the first election after this Statute takes effect, one half, or a less proportion as near as may be to one half, shall hold office for two years, and the remainder for three years from election; and every member elected afterwards shall hold office for three years, except that, when a member vacates his office otherwise than by lapse of time, the person elected in his place shall hold office for the unexpired residue only of the period of tenure of the person whom he succeeds.

- iii. If any question shall arise as to the right of any person, certified to be an authorised Lecturer in any subject, to take part in the election of members of the Board of any Faculty, it shall be decided by the Vice-Chancellor, or if the Vice-Chancellor be, as the Head of a College, the certifying authority, then by the Senior Pro-Vice-Chancellor.
- iv. The electors present at each meeting held for an election may determine, by majority of votes, the number of places to be filled up; provided that it do not exceed a number which, added to that of the elected members of the Board whose places are not vacant, will equal the number of the ex officio members for the time being.
- v. The Board of any Faculty may at any meeting, by majority of votes, co-opt an additional member or members. Provided that notice of the intention to propose such a co-optation and of the name of the person to be proposed shall have been sent through the Secretary to all the members of the Board fourteen days at least before the day of meeting, and that no co-optation shall take place if the number of co-opted members would be thereby raised to more than one fifth of the aggregate number of exofficio and elected members for the time being. A person who is not a member of Convocation shall not be thereby disqualified for becoming a co-opted member of a Board.
- 12. The Board of each Faculty shall elect a Chairman annually.
- 13. Unless the University shall by Statute determine another mode of appointment, the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors shall appoint a fit person to be Secretary to the Boards of Faculties, and to perform such other functions (if any) as the University may from time to time charge him with. He shall hold his office for three years or such longer time as the University may from time to time by Statute determine, and shall receive such emoluments as may be in like manner assigned to him by the University. The emoluments of the Secretary and necessary expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties shall be paid out of the University Chest. The meetings of the several Boards shall be so arranged as to enable the Secretary, when required, to be present at each of them.

14. On or before a day to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for the time being in each Term, every Professor and University Reader shall send to the Secretary a Schedule of the lectures and other instruction which the Professor or University Reader proposes to give during the ensuing Term in the subjects of any Faculty to which he belongs. The Schedule shall state the places, tays, hours, and subjects of the lectures.

15. The Head of every College and the Delegates of Students not attached to any College or Hall shall, on or before the abovementioned day, send to the Secretary a like Schedule of the lectures (if any) which are intended to be given during the ensuing Term in the subjects of each or any Faculty, under the authority of the College or of the Delegates respectively, and to be open to persons other than members of the College, or (as the case may be) other than Students not attached to any College or Hall. Every Schedule shall state the places, days, hours, and subjects of the lectures.

16. The Chairman of each Board of a Faculty shall, with all convenient speed after the expiration of the time limited for sending in the Schedules, call a meeting of the Board for the consideration of the Schedules of lectures in the subjects of the Faculty. The Board may, if they think fit, appoint a Committee of their own body for the better consideration of such Schedules. The Board may recommend such alterations (if any) in the days and hours proposed in the several Schedules as they may deem savisable for making the lectures more accessible to Students. They may also, if they think fit, recommend an alteration of the subjects proposed, if they are satisfied that such an alteration is required for the proper teaching of subjects in which instruction ought to be given.

Any Schedule in which alterations are recommended shall be remitted for revision and amendment to the Professor or other person named in it.

- 17. The Board shall, out of the Schedules when settled, fr a list of the lectures to be delivered during the ensuing T in the subjects of the Faculty. Such list shall be transmitted the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause it to be published for information of members of the University. Copies of the shall be sent to the Head of every College, who shall cause t to be affixed to the notice-boards of the College.
- 18. The Board shall not alter any Schedule without the con of the person named in it. But if a recommendation made by Board as to any Schedule be not acceded to, the Board may they think fit, exclude the Schedule or the part of it affected such recommendation from the list, unless such Schedule was in by a Professor or University Reader. In the last-mentic case, the Board shall not exclude the Schedule, but may, if think fit, report the fact to the Vice-Chancellor.
- 19. This Statute shall apply to existing Professors and I versity Readers as well as to Professors and University Readereafter to be appointed.
- 20. The word 'College' shall in this Statute include a Hall being a private Hall.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 18 section 30.

A Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford concerning a Visitatorial Board.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument in writing under our Seal make the following Statute for the University of Oxford:—

1. For exercising certain powers now vested in the Vice-Chancellor and Delegates of Appeals in Congregation, and for other purposes, there shall be a Visitatorial Board consisting

The Vice-Chancellor;

Three persons elected by the Hebdomadal Council for a term of six years;

Three persons elected by the Congregation of the University for a term of six years.

The elected members shall be members of the University, of the degree of Master of Arts at the least, of not less than ten ran standing.

- 2. Of the first three persons to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council and Congregation respectively, the junior of each class in scadenical standing shall vacate his office at the expiration of the second year from his election, and the next junior of each class shall vacate his office at the expiration of the fourth year from his election. All other persons elected, except such as shall be elected upon casual vacancies, shall vacate their offices at the expiration of six years.
 - 3. Every member of the Board shall be capable of re-election.
- 4. If an elected member dies or otherwise vacates his office before the expiration of the period for which he was elected, the vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the period by an appointment made in the same way as if the vacancy had been caused by effluxion of time.
- 5. If the Vice-Chancellor be from any cause unable to act, the Senior Pro-Vice-Chancellor may act for him.

- Five members of the Board, one of whom shall be the Vice-Chancellor or the Senior Pro-Vice-Chancellor, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.
- 7. Except on the question whether an admonition or sentence shall be pronounced by the Board, the Vice-Chancellor, or the Pro-Vice-Chancellor acting for him, shall have a casting vote.
- 8. If, after inquiry held, it be proved to the satisfaction of the Visitatorial Board that a Professor or University Reader has been guilty of grave misconduct, neglect of the duties of his office, or wilful disobedience to the Statutes of the University relating to it, the Board may admonish him, or, if in their judgment the gravity of the case shall require it, may deprive him of his office. It shall also be in the power of the Visitatorial Board, where a Professor or University Reader has been proved to be guilty of wilful neglect of duty not such as to warrant deprivation of office, to deprive him (if they think fit) of any part of the emoluments of his office not exceeding the amount thereof for one year. In the last case the emoluments which would have been payable to the Professor or Reader shall be paid to the Common University Fund.
- 9. The emoluments of an office shall in this Statute be deemed to include any annual payment or other emolument annexed to it by the Statutes of any College, but shall not include the income of a canonry or other ecclesiastical benefice.
- 10. This Statute shall be without prejudice to any power given by the Statutes of any College to the Visitor of the College or to the Governing Body thereof to deprive a Professor or University Reader who is a Fellow of the College of his Fellowship or of any part of the emoluments which he is entitled to receive as Fellow for any cause for which any other Fellow of the College would be liable to be so deprived.
- 11. The Visitatorial Board may, on a representation made to them, or without any representation, hold an inquiry in any case the circumstances of which shall, in their judgment, require it. The Vice-Chancellor shall, on the request of any member of the Board, convene a meeting of the Board. No admonition or sentence shall be pronounced by the Board unless the person charged has had notice in writing of the charge given to him or sent to his last known place of abode in the United Kingdom, and opportunity for defence. A Professor or University Reader sentenced to deprivation of office or of emolument may appeal against such sentence to the Chancellor of the University, who may confirm, alter, or annul the sentence, and whose decision shall be final.

12. The powers herein-before given to the Visitatorial Board in respect of Professors and University Readers may be exercised also, under like conditions and in like manner, in respect of the following officers of the University (namely):—

The Public Orator:

The Keeper of the Archives;

The Registrar;

and any other officer of the University who may hereafter be made subject to those powers by Statute of the University. In respect of Bodley's Librarian, the power of deprivation shall be vested exclusively in the same Board and shall be exercised in like manner and under like conditions, but the power of admonition for sufficient cause shall continue to be vested in the Vice-Chancellor, acting with the consent of the Curators of the Bodleian Library, and shall not be exercised by the Visitatorial Board.

- 13. If it be proved to the satisfaction of the Visitatorial Board that a Professor or University Reader has become temporarily or permanently disabled for the performance of the duties of his office, the Board may determine that provision shall be made for the performance of them during such incapacity by the appointment of a competent deputy, to be remunerated out of the emoluments of the Professor or University Reader, and shall fix the amount of such remuneration. The appointment of a deputy shall be made by the persons who would have appointed to the Professorship or University Readership if it had been vacant. Provided that no such appointment shall be made for a period exceeding one year without the approval of Convocation: Provided also, that the operation of this clause shall be subject to the operation of any Statute which the University may hereafter make for the voluntary or compulsory retirement of a Professor or University Reader permanently disabled for the performance of his duties.
- 14. Subject to the provisions of this Statute, the University may by Statute from time to time make further regulations respecting the proceedings of the Visitatorial Board, and give to it additional powers and duties.
- 15. This Statute shall take effect in substitution for any Statutes or clauses of Statutes which empower the Vice-Chancellor and the Delegates of Appeals in Congregation, or the Vice-Chancellor alone, to deprive or admonish a Professor or University Reader, or any officer above-named, or to mulct him of any part of his emoluments, or to grant him leave of absence, or to provide for the performance of his duties in case of his being disabled.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Ninth day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

C. STATUTES RELATING TO PARTICULAR PROFESSORSHIPS AND READERSHIPS.

We, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute bereunto annexed for the University of Oxford, concerning the Regius and Margaret Professors of Divinity and the Regius Professor of Hebrew in the said University.

Given under our common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

The Regius and Margaret Professors of Divinity and the Regius Professor of Hebrew.

1. The General Regulations of the Statute concerning the Duties of Professors shall be applicable to-

The Regius Professor of Divinity;

The Regius Professor of Hebrew;

The Margaret Professor of Divinity.

- 2. The Particular Regulations which by the same Statute are made applicable to the Professors enumerated in Schedule A. thereto annexed shall likewise be applicable to each of the three above-named Professors; except that the provision requiring that the Professor shall, in two at least of the University Terms, lecture during seven weeks not less than twice a week, shall not be applicable to the Regius Professor of Divinity.
- 3. The powers which under the same Statute the University is enabled to exercise of making by Statute further regulations respecting the duties and residence of Professors, and the lectures and other instruction to be given by them, shall extend and be applicable to the same Professors.
- 4. The power of admonishing or depriving the Margaret Prolessor of Divinity, which is given by existing Statutes to the 58 PROFESSORSHIP OF INTERPRETATION OF HOLY SCRIPTURE.

Vice-Chancellor and the major part of the Doctors of Divinity being members of Congregation, shall not hereafter be exercised; and the Professor shall, as such, be subject only to the general powers of admonition and deprivation vested in the Visitatorial Board by the Statutes in force for the University for the time being.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

A Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford concerning a Professorship of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument in writing under our Seal, make the following Statute for the University of Oxford:—

- 1. THERE shall be a Professorship of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture within the University, which shall be called the Oriel Professorship of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture, and to which shall be permanently annexed and united the Canonry in the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, heretofore annexed and united to the Provostship of Oriel College.
- 2. The election to the Professorship shall be vested in an Electoral Board consisting of—

The Archbishop of Canterbury.

The Bishop of Rochester.

The Vice-Chancellor.

The Provost of Oriel College.

The Regius Professor of Divinity.

- 3. No person shall be eligible who is not in Priest's Orders of the Church of England.
- 4. The annexation of the Canonry to the Professorship shall take effect immediately on the severance of the Canonry from the Provostship, and the first election of a Professor shall be held as soon as may be after such severance.

- 5. The Professor shall reside within the University during fourteen weeks at least in each year, except any part of that time for which he may have received leave of absence from the Visitatorial Board. Such fourteen weeks shall be in two of the three University Terms (Easter and Trinity Terms being counted as one), and not less than six weeks shall be in each Term.
- 6. He shall lecture in two at least of the three University Terms (Easter and Trinity Terms being counted as one). His lectures shall extend over a period not less in any Term than six weeks, and not less in the whole than fourteen weeks, and he shall lecture twice at least in each week.
- 7. The General Regulations of the Statute concerning the Duties of Professors shall be applicable to the Oriel Professor of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture.
- 8. The University may by Statute from time to time make further regulations, not inconsistent with this Statute, for regulating or further defining the Professor's duties. Provided that in such regulations due regard be had to his obligations of residence and other duties as a Canon of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester.
- 9. The Professor shall be liable to admonition and to deprivation of office by the Visitatorial Board, for the same causes, and with the same right of appeal, as other Professors within the University.
- 10. The Professorship may be held together with Dean Ireland's Professorship of the Exegesis of Holy Scripture, unless and until the University shall otherwise by Statute determine, and subject to such conditions (if any), not inconsistent with the provisions of this Statute, as the University may by Statute or Decree prescribe.
- 11. The Professorship shall not be tenable with a benefice with cure of souls.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, ection 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-sixth day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-one.

University of Oxford

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, do hereby signify our concurrence in the foregoing Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877. Seal of the

(L. S.)

Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Witness our Common Seal.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the Regius Professor of Civil Law in the said University.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-one.

L.S.

Regius Professor of Civil Law.

- 1. THE Regius Professor of Civil Law shall lecture and give instruction on Roman Law, its principles and history.
- 2. He shall be entitled to the emoluments now assigned to the Professorship (exclusive of any temporary payment which by any Statute in force at the time when this Statute comes into operation may be provided for the Professor from the University Chest), and to the additional emoluments which are appropriated to it by the Statutes of All Souls' College 1.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

A Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford as to the Vinerian Professor of English Law.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 do by this present Instrument in writing under our Seal make the following Statute for the University of Oxford every part whereof is to be deemed a Statute made wholly for the University within the meaning of Section Thirty of the aforesaid Act:—

- 1. THE Vinerian Professor of English Law shall deliver lectures and give instruction on English Law.
 - 2. He shall be elected by an Electoral Board, consisting of-
 - (1) The Chancellor of the University;
 - (2) The Lord Chief Justice of England;
 - (3) The Regius Professor of Civil Law in the University;
 - (4) The Corpus Professor of Jurisprudence;
 - (5) A person nominated on each occasion by All Souls' College to act as an Elector on that occasion.
- 3. He shall receive the annual proceeds of the trust estate of Mr. Viner's Foundation remaining after payment of the statutory emoluments of the Scholars of that Foundation, and shall also be entitled to the emoluments which, by the Statutes of All Souls' College', are appropriated to his Professorship out of the revenues of that College.
- 4. He shall be subject to all Statutes duly made or to be made from time to time by the University of Oxford Commissioners, or by the University, respecting his Professorship or respecting Professorships in general.

Temporary Provisions.

If at the time of the first election after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, the Professorship of Jurisprudence be not filled up, the Hebdomadal Council shall nominate a person to act as an Elector on that occasion.

So long as the total income provided for the Professor from the sources mentioned above does not amount to seven hundred pounds at the least, it shall be augmented to that amount by a yearly payment from the University Chest.

The University may apply to the maintenance of the Professorship, in aid of the University Chest, any sum which under the existing Statutes of Jesus College or under any new Statutes to be made for that College under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, shall have been paid or shall be payable by that College to the University, and shall under such Statutes be applicable to that purpose ¹.

The regulations of the existing Statutes of the University concerning the Professorship, so far as they relate to the Electors by whom and the manner in which the Professor is to be appointed, and to his emoluments, shall henceforth be void.

The regulations of such existing Statutes, so far as they relate to the Professor's duties, the mode in which the performance of them is to be enforced, the appointment of a deputy in case of need, the fees which he may receive, and his residence within the University, shall severally remain in force unless and until new Statutes for regulating those matters shall have been made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877. When and so soon as such new Statutes shall have come into operation the aforesaid regulations of the existing Statutes shall be void.

Any payments which have been or shall be made by or under the authority of the University, out of Funds applicable under the existing Statutes to the maintenance of the Professorship, for the maintenance of a Vinerian Reader during the vacancy of the Professorship shall be deemed to have been duly made notwithstanding that the Professorship had become vacant at the time when the Vinerian Reader was appointed to or continued in his Readership.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-seventh day of January in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-one.

WE the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute bereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the Chichele Professor of International Law in the said University.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-one.

Chichele Professor of International Law.

- 1. THE Chichele Professor of International Law shall lecture and give instruction on Public and Private International Law, including as a part of Public International Law the history and obligation of Treaties.
- 2. He shall be entitled to the emoluments which by the Statutes of All Souls' College are appropriated to his Professorship 1.
- 3. The Professor shall be elected by a Board of Electors of whom one shall always be a person nominated on each occasion by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College to act as an Elector on that occasion.
- 4. Subject to any exercise of the power of the University to regulate or vary from time to time the constitution of the Board in other respects, the Board shall consist of—
 - (1) The Visitor of All Souls' College;
 - (2) The Lord Chancellor of Great Britain;
 - (3) The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;
 - (4) The President of the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice;
 - (5) A person nominated on each occasion by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College to act as an Elector on that occasion.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, action 30.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal, make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the Corpus Christi Professor of Jurisprudence in the said University.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-one.

Corpus Christi Professor of Jurisprudence.

- 1. THE Corpus Christi Professor of Jurisprudence shall lecture and give instruction on the history of laws and the comparative Jurisprudence of different nations; in addition to which he may, if he think fit, treat of the principles of laws in general, and of any other matters relevant to the subjects of his Chair which he may judge to be advisable.
- 2. He shall be entitled to the emoluments which by the Statutes of Corpus Christi College are appropriated to his Professorship.
- 3. The Professor shall hold his office for a period of five years from election and no longer, but shall be re-eligible: Provided that the University may from time to time, with the assent of Corpus Christi College, by Statute or Decree vary the term for which the Professorship is to be tenable, or may, with the like assent, determine that the Professor shall hold his office for life; in which case he shall be subject to the Particular Regulations applicable to the Professors mentioned in Schedule A. annexed to the Statute concerning the Duties of Professors.
- 4. The Professor shall be elected by a Board of Electors of whom one shall always be a member of Corpus Christi College nominated on each occasion by the College to act as an Elector on that occasion, and another shall be a person nominated by the College as a permanent Elector, subject to the approval of Convocation.
- 5. Subject to any exercise of the power of the University to regulate or vary from time to time the constitution of the Board in other respects, the Board shall consist of—
 - (1) The Regius Professor of Civil Law;
 - (2) The Chichele Professor of International Law and Diplomacy:
 - (3) A member of Corpus Christi College nominated on each occasion by the College to act as an Elector on that occasion;

- (4) A person nominated as a permanent Elector by Corpus Christi College, subject to the approval of Convocation;
- (5) A person nominated as a permanent Elector by the Hebdomadal Council, subject to the approval of Convocation.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

As to a Readership in Roman Law.

Wz, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us costained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument, in writing, under our Seal, make the following Statute for the University of Oxford and for the College of the Souls of All Faithful People Deceased of Oxford, commonly called All Souls' College, every part whereof is to be deemed a Statute both of the University and of the College:—

INASMUCH as the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College have offered to pay annually the sum of four hundred pounds, so long as the Regius Professorship of Civil Law is held upon its present conditions, to be applied by the University to the endowment of a Readership in Roman Law, it is hereby provided that—

- 1. Until the Regius Professorship of Civil Law shall fall vacant, or until the existing Regius Professor shall, by his own consent, become subject to any Statutes for the future regulation of that Professorship and the duties of the Professor which may be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners, a Reader in Roman Law shall be appointed from time to time for successive periods of three years.
- 2. Any such Reader shall retain his office and be entitled to his stipend (unless he shall sooner resign the same) until the end of the period of three years for which he shall have been appointed, although in the meantime the Regius Professorship of Civil Law may have become vacant, or subject to any such Statutes to be hereafter made as aforesaid. And if any Statute shall be hereafter made by the University of Oxford Commissioners inconsistent with the continuance of such Readership no further appointment thereto shall be made after such Statute shall come into operation.

3. The Reader shall be elected by-

The Regius Professor of Civil Law;

The Chichele Professor of International Law and Diplomacy;

The Corpus Professor of Jurisprudence;

The Chairman for the time being of the Council of Legal Education appointed by the Inns of Court in London;

A person to be nominated by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College, with a view to each election.

No election shall be invalidated on account of any of the Professorships, the holders of which are Electors to the Readership being vacant at the time of the election. Those Professors shall be Electors, notwithstanding any change in their titles or duties to be hereafter made by Statute.

- 4. Subject to any general Statute to be hereafter made by or for the University as to the residence of University Readers, the Reader shall be required to reside within the precincts of the University for six months in each year, between the tenth day of October and the first day of July next following.
- 5. WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford and for the Cathedral or House of Christ Church in Oxford, the said Statute being in part a Statute for the University and in part a Statute for the said Cathedral or House concerning Dr. Lee's Readers.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

- A Statute in Part for the University and in Part for the Cathedral or House of Christ Church, concerning Dr. Lee's Readers.
- 1. In this Statute the word 'Reader' shall mean (unless where it is otherwise expressed or a different meaning is required by the context) one of the three Readers in Anatomy, Chemistry, and Physics, entitled Dr. Lee's Readers; and the word 'Readership' shall mean the office held by any one of such Readers.
 - 2. The appointment to each Readership shall be vested in a Board of five persons, of whom one shall be the Dean of Christ Church, two shall be nominated on the occasion of each election by the Electoral Board of Christ Church, and two others shall be nominated in such manner as the University may from time to time by Statute determine. In default of any such Statute and subject thereto, such two persons shall be nominated on the occasion of each election by the Board of the Faculty of Natural Science.

- 3. The University may from time to time by Statute or Decree, with the consent of the Governing Body of Christ Church testified under the College Seal, but not otherwise, (unless under the powers given in clause 8), make regulations respecting the tenure and conditions of tenure, duties, emolument, and mode of appointment or removal of the Readers or of any Reader, or any other matters relating to them which it may be deemed expedient so to regulate. Unless and until this power shall have been exercised and subject thereto, the regulations respecting the Readers shall be as follows:—
- 4. The Readers shall hold their respective offices for life, subject to the power of deprivation for sufficient cause vested in the Visitatorial Board.
- 5. Every Reader shall reside within the University during six months in the Academical year, between the first day of September and the ensuing first day of July.
- 6. Every Reader shall lecture in two at least of the three University Terms (Easter and Trinity Terms being counted together as one). His Lectures shall extend over a period not less in any Term than six weeks nor less in the whole than fourteen weeks, and shall be open to members of the University in the same manner and on the same conditions as the ordinary lectures to be delivered by Professors within the University. He shall also undertake the superintendence of any Laboratory which the University may from time to time assign to him by Statute or Decree with such consent of the Governing Body of Christ Church as herein-before mentioned, and of the work of Students admitted to such Laboratory.

It shall be the duty of every Reader, in arranging the subjects and times of his Lectures, to have regard to the arrangements made or proposed to be made by the Professor or Professors lecturing in the same department of study.

7. One of the three Readers shall lecture and give instruction in Anatomy, another in Chemistry, and the third in Physics.

The Reader in Anatomy may, if he think fit (subject to any definition of his duties under the clause next following), lecture also on Physiology.

8. When a Readership becomes vacant the Board of the Faculty of Natural Science may, if they think fit, at any time within four weeks after the occurrence of the vacancy, submit to the Vice-Chancellor a recommendation that it shall be the special duty of the Reader about to be appointed to lecture and give instruction in some part or parts, specified in such recommendation, of the department of science assigned to his Readership; and the recommendation, if approved by Decree of Convocation, but not otherwise, shall be binding on the person appointed to fill such vacancy as if it had been inserted as a definition of his duties in this Statute, but not (unless renewed in like manner) on any person subsequently appointed. The University may, if it think fit, by Decree, during the Reader's tenure of office, with his consent, determine that such definition of his duties shall be varied or cancelled.

Notice that an appointment is about to be made to a vacant Readership shall not be given until either the said period of four weeks shall have expired, or the Board of the Faculty shall within that period have notified to the Vice-Chancellor that they do not propose to make a recommendation; nor, if a recommendation shall have been made, shall the notice be given until the recommendation shall have been brought before Convocation for approval.

- 9. The following Statutes and provisions of Statutes made for the University shall extend and apply to the Readers as if they were expressly included, as Professors or University Readers, within the operation of those Statutes (namely):—
 - (a) The Statute concerning Boards of Faculties.
- (b) The Statute concerning a Visitatorial Board; provided that the power given by that Statute to mulct a Reader of his emolument for sufficient cause shall not extend to any emoluments received by such Reader in respect of duties to be performed by him for Christ Church.
- (c) The Statute concerning elections to Professorships; provided that the power thereby given of suspending an election shall not be exercised in the case of a Readership unless with the consent of the Governing Body of Christ Church under the College Seal.
- (d) The General Regulations contained in the Statute concerning the duties of Professors (except the regulation requiring the delivery of public lectures from time to time), and the provisions of the same Statute respecting Dispensations and Leave of Absence.

The Readers shall be deemed to be University Readers, and shall as such be ex officio members of the Board of the Faculty of Natural Science, but shall not be deemed to be included within the provisions of the Statute concerning Readers receiving stipends out of the Common University Fund.

- 10. Every Reader may, as an Official Student of Christ Church, be required to take such part in the educational work of the House as the Governing Body on the recommendation of the Electoral Board of the House shall from time to time determine: Provided that the work so required of him be specially connected with the Department of Science assigned to him as Reader and be not incompatible with the full performance of his duties for the University under this Statute.
- 11. Every Reader shall be entitled to receive in respect of the duties to be performed by him for the University under this Statute the yearly sum of four hundred pounds as provided by the Statutes made for Christ Church, and in respect of his duties for the House the additional emoluments for which provision is made by the same Statutes¹.
- 12. This Statute shall not apply to any Reader appointed before the sixth day of October, 1880, unless he shall by writing under his hand delivered to the Vice-Chancellor have consented to place himself under its provisions. Unless and until he shall have so consented, any such Reader shall not be deemed to be a University Reader within the meaning of any Statute made for the University.

This Statute is in part a Statute for the University, and in part a Statute for Christ Church; (that is to say), as to such parts of it as relate to the appointment of Readers, their tenure, the duties to be performed by them for the University and the power to define such duties, the emolument to be received by them in respect of such duties, the University Statutes to which they are to be subject, and the power given to the University of making new Regulations in relation to them, it is a Statute for the University; and as to such parts of it as relate to the duties to be performed by the Readers for the House, and the emoluments to be received by them in respect thereof, it is a Statute for Christ Church.

ance of a Professorship or any other University purpose, a sum equal to the amount of the charge, provided the same or a greater charge for any University purpose is preserved or imposed by any Statute or Statutes made for the College under the powers of that Act.

 The balance in each year of receipts over deductions shall for the purposes of this Statute be deemed to be the net revenue of the College for

4. The contri.

(a) An initial pounds for every one hundred pounds (

(b) In respect ceeding five thousand pounds an addi progressive scale equal to the per-centages, reckoned cumulatively.

5. The initial payment of two pounds per centum shall first accrue in and for the year 1883.

The additional payment shall become due by successive increments. In respect of it every College shall pay for each of the years 1885 to 1889 (both inclusive) one fourth of the whole sum to which such additional payment, calculated as above, would have amounted for that year; for each of the years 1890 to 1894, both inclusive, one half; for each of the years 1895 to 1899, both inclusive, three fourths; and for every subsequent year the whole. The proportion payable for each year as aforesaid shall be deemed to be the additional payment due from the College for that year.

- 6. A College may, if it think fit, claim an abatement in respect of income wholly appropriated to certain College emoluments; (that is to say,)
 - (a) Any emolument the trusts or directions affecting which are protected from alteration by section 13 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877;
 - (b) Emoluments in elections to which any school has a right of preference within the meaning of section 39 of the same Act, (not including any such emolument which is held for the time being under an election held after open competition).

In respect of income wholly appropriated to any such emolument, whether arising from an endowment, benefaction, or trust, or from corporate revenue of the College, the College shall be entitled to be allowed an abatement from as well the initial as the additional payments bearing the same proportion to the whole amount payable by it for the year as the appropriated income bears to the whole net income of the College for the year: Provided that the income of an emolument in respect of which an abatement is claimed shall in no case exceed the amount which at the time of the passing of the said Act was appropriated to the emolument by Statute or by any Instrument of Foundation.

7. Against the amount of the contribution due from each College shall be reckoned any sum or sums paid by the College within the year under Statutes made for the College by the University of Oxford Commissioners, for any University purpose mentioned in such Statutes, including the emoluments of any Fellowship or Fellowships attached to Professorships; and the College shall be chargeable only with the excess (if any) of the amount of its contribution for the year over the amount so paid.

Provided as follows: (1) the amount so reckoned to the credit of the College shall not include any sum already deducted in computing net revenue; (2) a sum equal in amount to the initial payment of two pounds per centum shall in every year be paid without deduction on this account.

- 8. The amount due under this Statute from every College for each year shall be paid by the College to the Curators of the University Chest within three months after the day which shall be appointed for sending in for publication the abstracts of the College accounts for that year. And the College shall, fourteen days at least before the day of payment, cause to be delivered to the Curators a summary statement of account showing the receipts and deductions, the amount of net revenue for the year, the payments to be reckoned to the credit of the College, and the amount due from it.
- 9. The Curators of the University Chest shall be charged with the duty of seeing that the provisions of this Statute are duly complied with, and shall have power to require from any College explanations of the summary statement delivered to them under clause 8 of this Statute. If any difference should arise between the Curators and a College respecting any deduction claimed or any other matter of account affecting the amount payable by the College, the question in difference shall be referred to three persons, of whom two shall be nominated at the commencement of each year, one by the Hebdomadal Council, and the other by a majority of the votes of the Heads and Bursars of Colleges present at a meeting summoned for that purpose by the Vice-Chancellor; the third shall be nominated if and when occasion arises by the Chancellor of the University, and shall receive suitable remuneration from the University Chest. In the case one Bursar, only one of sucl of any Colleg Bursars shall ent and vote at the meeting. 10. This S eemed to diminish or affect the liability of a atutes made for the College, to d period or otherwise, for the make provisi. r any other University purpose

er such Statutes shall be taker

ore provided in determining the for University purposes unde make provision maintenance save only tha into account i amount to be this Statute.

- 11. The Curators of the University Chest may at any time if they think fit, permit any College to commute the whole annua payments with which it would be chargeable under this Statute or so much thereof as consists in the initial payment of two pound per centum, for a yearly payment of fixed amount; provided than no such commutation shall be for a longer period than five year at a time, and that the terms of the commutation shall have been approved by the Hebdomadal Council.
- 12. This Statute shall operate without prejudice to any interes saved by the thirty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877: Provided that this saving shall not be deemed to include the interest of any person holding an emolument to which he was elected or appointed under the condition that his tenure of it should be subject to any new Statutes to be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners in relation to such emolument.
- 13. The general provisions of this Statute shall be subject in the case of certain Colleges herein-after named to the following exceptions and qualifications (namely):
 - (i) In consideration of the immediate charges which will be imposed upon the following Colleges by Statutes made or to be made for them respectively, the provision in clause 7, that a sum equal in amount to the initial payment of two pounds per centum shall in every year be paid without deduction on account of sums paid as therein mentioned, shall not apply to those Colleges (namely):

All Souls:

Christ Church (until the year 1885 inclusive, but no longer); Lincoln;

Oriel.

- (ii) If a Statute shall have been made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, annexing the Canonry in the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, now united to the Provostship of Oriel College, to an office of a theological or ecclesiastical character in the University, then, after such annexation shall have taken effect, the income of the Canonry shall, to the extent of four hundred and fifty pounds per annum (part thereof), be reckoned under clause 7 of this Statute as a sum paid by the College for a specified University purpose.
- (iii) The payment of the yearly sum of one thousand two hundred pounds under Statutes to be made for Christ Church to Dr. Lee's Readers, and any further payment authorised thereby for the laboratory and incidental expenses of such Readers, shall be reckoned under clause 7 of this Statute as payments for specified University purposes, if and when a Statute or Statutes regulating the duties of the office in relation to the University and other matters proper to be so regulated shall have been made and taken effect, but not otherwise.
- (iv) In computing the net income of Christ Church for the purposes of this Statute there shall be reckoned as additional deductions—
 - (a) The sum for the time being set apart for the Cathedral Fabric Fund;
 - (b) A sum of twelve thousand five hundred pounds, part of the sum of fifteen thousand five hundred pounds assigned by the Statutes to the Chapter Fund.

In reckoning the amount at which the College buildings are assessed the assessment of the residentiary houses with their appurtenances assigned to the Canons shall not be included.

(v) In the case of Balliol College income subject to the trusts, conditions, or directions of the will of John Snell, Esquire, deceased, or any scheme approved by the Court of Chancery relating thereto (except any part of such income which may for the time being be paid to the Head of the College as such) shall be reckoned as appropriated income within the meaning of clause 6.

14. Where by Statutes made for a College power is or shall be given to the Visitor to make an order directing the application of any part of the surplus revenues of the College to University purposes, or to purposes relative to the College or to the University,

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Ninth day of April, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

L. S.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 18th August, 1882.]

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford: such Statute to take effect as supplemental to the Statute made for that University concerning College Contributions for University Purposes.

Given under our Common Seal this Eighth day of July, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

Concerning College Contributions for University Purposes (Supplemental Statute).

- 1. THE provisions of this Statute shall be supplemental to the Statute concerning College Contributions for University Purposes, and shall be read and applied as if they formed part of that Statute.
- 2. To the deductions directed to be made by Clause 2 of that Statute in the computation of net revenue shall be added the deduction following (namely):—

In the case of any College which at the time of the passing of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, was charged with any payment for the maintenance of a Professorship or any other University purpose, and which by Statutes made for the College under that Act is charged with a payment or payments for the same or other University purposes of less amount in the whole, a sum equal to the amount of the reduced charge.

3. If by the receipt in any year of arrears of rent remaining due from any previous year a College would become liable under Clause 4 of the above-mentioned Statute to an additional payment for the year of receipt on a scale higher than that to which it would otherwise be liable, the Curators of the University Chest may, if and on such conditions (if any) as they deem just, allow the money so received or any part of it to be excluded from the accounts of the year of receipt, and accounted for as a sum received in the year in which it became due, charging the College in respect of it with a payment sufficient to make up the contribution actually paid by the College for such previous year to the same amount as if the sum excluded had in that year been actually received and then brought into account.

Clause 9 of the said Statute providing for the settlement of differences arising between the Curators and a College shall extend to and include any difference arising from a refusal of the Curators to allow any receipt to be excluded and dealt with in the manner herein-before mentioned, or any difference arising as to the conditions on which the said exclusion should be allowed, or as to the amount of the payment to be made in respect of the sum excluded.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

m from Colleges in the Unir University purposes, and not ific purpose by or under the authority of any Statutes made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University or for a College.

- (b) Any other sums which by any University or College Statute, or by Decree of Convocation, are or shall be directed to be paid into the said Fund.
- (c) If in the year 1884 or any subsequent year the total amount paid into the Common University Fund from the abovementioned sources shall be less than three thousand pounds, the deficiency shall be made up out of the University Chest.

So soon as the revenues of the University shall in the judgment of Convocation be sufficient, the total amount to be annually carried to the credit of the Fund shall be raised to a sum not less than five thousand pounds.

3. For the administration of the Common University Fund there shall be a Delegacy consisting of:-

The Vice-Chancellor;

Five members of Convocation nominated by the Hebdomadal Council:

Five members of Convocation nominated by the Congregation of the University;

So many other members as there shall be Boards of Faculties, one such member being nominated by each Board.

4. Of the first five persons who shall be nominated by the Hebdomadal Council and by Congregation respectively, the two in each class who are junior in academical standing shall vacate their places at the expiration of two years from election. All other persons elected, except such as are elected on casual vacancies, shall hold their places for four years. Any person elected on a casual vacancy shall vacate his place at the time when it would have been vacated by the person whom he succeeds. Every member vacating his place shall be re-eligible.

- 5. The Common University Fund shall be applicable:—
- (a) To the payment of stipends to Readers and to Extraordinary Professors or Lecturers within the University, and to the other purposes specified in Section XVI., Sub-section (3) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.
- (b) To the purposes (other than that of providing new or improving existing buildings) specified in Sub-sections (9), (10), (12), of the same section of the Act.
- 6. The expression 'Extraordinary Professor' shall in this Statute denote the holder of a Professorship which is to continue so long only as it is held by the person appointed to it.

No Extraordinary Professor shall be appointed unless authority to appoint to the Professorship shall have been previously given by Convocation; and the University may, if it think fit, regulate, from time to time, by Statute or Decree, the manner of appointing to such Professorships.

- 7. The Delegates shall not apply any part of the income of the Fund to the purposes mentioned in Sub-sections (9) and (12) of Section XVI. of the said Act, unless the University shall, on the recommendation of the Delegates, by Decree of Convocation or by Statute have directed that it shall be so applied. Subject to the provisions of this and the last preceding clause of this Statute, and to the provisions of the Statute respecting University Readers, the Delegates shall have power to apply any part of the income to the purposes mentioned in clause 5 or any of them, and to settle as they may deem expedient the mode and order of such application.
- 8. The Delegates shall, in the Michaelmas Term of every year, by before the Vice-Chancellor for publication a statement of the income and expenditure of the Fund for the preceding year, together with an estimate of the income of the Fund for the ensuing year, specifying the subsisting charges on the Fund, and adding such further information, if any, as they may think proper, or as the University may by Statute require.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Ninth day of April, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

WE, the Univers virtue of all and contained in the U do by this preser hereunto annexed

ommissioners, under and by in this behalf enabling us d and Cambridge Act, 1877, our Seal make the Statute of Oxford, concerning the form of accounts of the University and the Audit and Publication

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

L. S.

Concerning the form of Accounts of the University and the Audit and Publication thereof.

- 1. THE Curators of the University Chest shall take care that the accounts of the University are duly kept in proper books of account, in which shall be entered all receipts and payments by them on behalf of the University, whether in respect of the General Fund, or of Funds appropriated to the support of particular Institutions within the University or to other special purposes, or of Trust Funds. Proper records shall be kept of all property of every kind held, and of all debts and liabilities contracted, by or on account of the University or any Trust. The books shall include---
 - (a) A Register of all the property of the University, showing the description, situation, amount, rental, or other annual value of every property; the fixed charges on it (if any); and, in the case of stocks or other securities, the names in which and the accounts to which the same are standing:
 - (b) A Roll of Rents, Rentcharges, Dividends, and other annual income, showing the amounts receivable and those actually received during the year, and the arrears (if any) at the beginning and at the close of the account:

- (c) A Cash-book or Cash-books, containing a record of all cash transactions:
- (d) A Ledger or Ledgers:

And also all such other books as may be necessary or convenient for regularly recording all such receipts and payments and other matters and things as aforesaid, and for enabling the several accounts to be duly checked and balanced, and the correctness of the Abstracts and Balance-sheet for the publication of which provision is made by this Statute to be ascertained and verified.

- 2. On or before the twenty-fourth day of March in every year the Curators of the University Chest shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Vice-Chancellor—
 - (a) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on the general account of the University for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December last preceding:
 - (b) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on account of the several properties held in trust by the University and administered by the Curators of the University Chest:
 - (c) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on account of any special funds administered by the Curators of the University Chest:
 - (d) A Balance-sheet showing at the close of the account the state of the current accounts of all the funds administered by the Curators of the University Chest:
 - (e) A statement of all loans contracted by the University and outstanding; showing in respect of each loan the amount originally borrowed, the amount remaining unpaid, the power under which the loan was contracted, the rate of interest, and the provision made for repayment.

The Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on the general account of the University and on account of properties held in Trust, and the Balance-sheet shall be respectively in the forms set forth in the Schedule annexed to this Statute. But the Curators may, if for special reasons it appear advisable to do so, sub-divide any item of account in the scheduled forms into more items than one, or insert additional items.

3. The Hebdomadal Council shall annually appoint a University Auditor, who shall be either a professional accountant carrying on business in London or Westminster, or (if they think fit) a person conversant with accounts approved by the Permanent Secretary to Her Majesty's Treasury. He shall, in conjunction with the Auditors of University accounts appointed by the University (or alone if the University by Statute so determine), audit all accounts whether relating to the general revenues and expenditure of the University, or to property held on special Trusts. The Auditor or Auditors shall report in writing to the Vice-Chancellor whether the accounts are dul, per books of account in conformity with the provise Statute, and whether the Abstracts, Balance-sheet.

It shall be lawful specially as to any parabeen made without report is made, the cof whom shall be t.... hey or he may judge to have ority. When such a special referred to three persons, one the time being to the Vice-

Chancellor, and the other two shall be nominated at the beginning of each academical year by the Hebdomadal Council; and the decision of such three persons or the major part of them shall be final.

- 4. The expense of such audit (including any payment of any clerk or clerks whose assistance may be required) shall be paid out of the University Chest.
- 5. On receiving the Abstracts, Balance-sheet, Statement, and Auditors' Report above mentioned, the Vice-Chancellor shall cause them to be printed, laid before Convocation, and published within the University. When any question is referred as aforesaid the Vice-Chancellor shall cause the decision of the referees to be in like manner printed and published.
- 6. Abstracts of the accounts of the Bodleian Library, the Botanic Garden, the Sheldonian Theatre, the Ashmolean Museum, the Taylor Institution, the University Galleries, the University Museum (including the several scientific departments thereof), the University Observatory, the Delegacy of University Police, the Curators of the Park, the Hope Curators, the Hope Keeper of Engraved Portraits, the Delegacy of Students not attached to any College or Hall, the Lodging Houses Delegacy, the Ruskin Trustees, and of all other Funds appropriated to the support of particular Institutions, or to other special purposes within the University, and administered otherwise than by the Curators of the University Chest, shall be in like manner audited, laid before Convocation, and published.

- 7. The general accounts of the University and the accounts of each Trust shall, after the audit thereof, be open to inspection by Members of Convocation at convenient times, under such regulations as the University may by Statute make from time to time, and in default of and subject to any such statutory regulations, under regulations to be made by the Curators of the University Chest.
- 8. The accounts of the Delegates of the Clarendon Press shall be audited in such manner as the University shall by Statute from time to time determine.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford, concerning the Publication of the Accounts of the Colleges in the said University.

Given under our Co of June, in the * Eight Hundred this Sixteenth day ord One Thousand ne.

of the Accounts of the rsity of Oxford.

- On or before the twenty-tourth day of March in every year every College in the University shall send or cause to be delivered to the Registrar of the University—
 - (a) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on the general account of the College for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December last preceding:
 - (b) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on account of the several properties held in trust by the College:
 - (c) Abstracts of Receipts and Payments on account of special funds maintained by the College, including the funds mentioned in the Schedule annexed to this Statute, and such other funds as the College may deem it expedient to include:
 - (d) A balance-sheet showing the state of the current accounts at the close of the accounts for the said year:
 - (e) A statement of all loans contracted by the College and outstanding; showing in respect of each loan the amount originally borrowed, the amount remaining unpaid, the power under which the loan was contracted, the rate of interest, and the provision made for repayment:
 - (f) A certificate, signed by the Auditor or Auditors appointed by the College, that the Accounts of the College are duly kept in proper books of account, and that the abstracts, statement, and balance-sheet are correct and contain a true account of the financial condition of the College:
 - (g) In case of refusal by any Auditor to sign the certificate, a statement signed by him of his reasons for such refusal.

The abstracts and balance-sheet shall be respectively in the forms set forth in the Schedule annexed to this Statute. But any College may, if for special reasons it appear advisable to do so, subdivide any item of account in the scheduled forms into more items than one, or insert additional items.

2. On receipt by the Registrar from each College of the abstracts, statement or statements, balance-sheet, and certificate above mentioned the Vice-Chancellor shall cause them to be printed and published within the University.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

E. MISCELLANEOUS STATUTES.

A Statute made bfor the Univers attached to any y of Oxford Commissioners concerning Students not all.

WE, the Univer virtue of all and econtained in the I do by this Instrum Statute for the Univ. Commissioners, under and by is in this behalf enabling us ord and Cambridge Act, 1877, ler our Seal make the following

1. THE Curators of the __ivei__y Chest shall pay to the Delegates of Students not attached to any College or Hall the sums next herein-after mentioned, to be applied in or towards payment of the stipend or stipends assigned by any Statute of the University to the Censor or Censors of Students not attached to any College or Hall (namely):

For the year 1883 the sum of two hundred pounds.

For every subsequent year the sum of four hundred pounds.

- 2. The revenues of the University shall be further charged with the payment annually to the Delegates of a sum not less than six hundred pounds to be applied in payment of Tutors or Lecturers for the said Students, or in maintaining Scholarships or Exhibitions, tenable by such Students, or otherwise in encouraging study among them or diminishing the expense of their University education. The disposal of this sum shall be in the discretion of the Delegates subject to any Statute of the University in force for the time being.
- 3. The payment last herein-before mentioned shall commence and become due as follows, namely;—When and as any payments now made by the University for the maintenance of any Professorship shall cease wholly or partly by reason of the maintenance of such Professorship having become a charge upon any College, the University shall be from time to time charged with a payment to the Delegates for the purposes aforesaid of a sum equal in amount to the payment of which it is relieved, until the full annual sum of six hundred pounds shall have become so payable.

- 4. If at any time, and so long as, the number of Students not stacked to any College or Hall of not more than twelve Terms' standing shall be less than one hundred, the University may by Decree direct that the charges imposed by the foregoing clauses shall be reduced to such an extent as the University shall judge to be reasonable.
- 5. When and so soon as the state of the revenues of the University will admit, the University shall be further charged with the expenditure of a capital sum of not less than seven thousand pounds in providing Offices, a Library, and such other buildings as may be necessary for the use of Students not attached to any College or Hall; provided that if the site for such buildings or any part thereof be given by the University, the value of the site so given may be taken into account as part of the said capital sum.
- 6. Any sum of money which may be paid by any College in the University to the Delegates for the purposes aforesaid, or for any of them, may be taken into account in reduction of the payments hereby directed to be made for those purposes from the University Chest.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

Given under our Common Seal this Ninth day of April, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

STATUTES MADE FOR THE COLLEGES AND HALLS.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statutes hereunto annexed for the College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

L.S.

I.

STATUTES OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

The College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College, was, according to popular tradition, founded and endowed by King Alfred the Great, in or about the year of our Lord 872.

The first mention of a Royal Foundation in the College documents occurs in a petition written in Norman-French and addressed to King Richard the Second, by 'voz povres oratours les maistre et escolars de vre College appellez Universite Hall en Oxenford, quel College estoit primorment fondez p vre noble progenitour le Roy Alfrid, que Deu assoil, pour la sustenance de vint et quatres Divinis perpetuels.'

The petition, which alleged St. John of Beverley, Bede, and many other famous 'Doctours et Clerks,' to have been scholars of the College, was granted on the ground of the College being 'del foundacion des progenitours fire Sr le Roy et de son patronage.'

Similar allegations were made from time to time in subsequent reigns. Queen Elizabeth, in her Charter of Incorporation, granted in 1573, states the College to be 'ex fundacione nobilium progenitorum nostrorum.' Finally, in the year 1726, a judgment of the Court of King's Bench declared the College to be a Royal Foundation, and the Sovereign to be Visitor.

The first historical endowment of the College dates from the year 1249. In that year William of Durham, said to have been Rector of Wearmouth, and I the Chancellor, Mass forma, scilicet, quod opus x vel xi vel xiu ditibus illius pecus rchases were made, in accordand certain quit rents by the legacy appointed by the Unierms of the will of Magister

Willielmus de Dunelmia, and finding that some of his bequest had been misapplied, drew up Statutes, under which four such Magistri were henceforth to live together in one house and study Theology, with, if they should think fit, the Decreta and Decretals.

The Society so formed received further Statutes from the University, in the years 1292, 1311, and from time to time subsequently. Till the judgment given in 1726, the Vice-Chancellor, Doctors of Divinity, and Proctors, as representing the University, claimed and exercised the right to act as Visitors.

In the year 1736 a fresh code of Statutes was issued by the Crown.

The ordinary name given to the Society was taken from the House or Hall purchased by the University, in 1253, viz. 'University Hall.' This title was exchanged, after the acquisition of a larger building on the site of the present College, early in the 14th century, for that of the 'Great' or 'Mickle,' (Michyl, Muchel, &c.) 'University Hall.' In the next century the title 'The Universite Colledge' became frequent. Its more formal titles were exceedingly various. 'Scholares Magistri Willielmi de Dunelmia' is the designation enforced on its members, 'quantum in iis est,' by the Statutes of 1311, and the name 'Aula,' or 'Collegium Willielmi de Dunelmia,' is found as late as the reign of Elizabeth. But the more common titles are, 'Magister et Scholares,' or 'Magister, sive Custos, et Socii, occasionally 'Senior socius et consocii,-Aulae,' or 'Magnae Aulae,' or 'Collegii, seu Magnae Aulae,' or 'Collegii Magnae Aulae Universitatis Oxon.'

These and other variations, with the exception of those in which William of Durham is named, and with the addition of 'vulgariter Universitatis Collegium nuncupatum,' are cited in Queen Elizabeth's Charter of Incorporation. The Charter granted 'Magistro et Sociis dicti Collegii Magnae Aulae Universitatis et successoribus suis, quod ipsi et successores sui de caetero in perpetuum sint et erunt unum corpus re et nomine incorporatum solum modo per nomen Magistri et Sociorum Collegii Magnae Aulae Universitatis Oxon.'

The endowment of William of Durham was added to at various dates by other benefactors; among others by King Henry IV, at the instance of Walter Skirlow or Skirlaw, Bishop of Durham, in 1403; by Henry Percy, Earl of Northumberland, in 1455; by Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester, in 1587; by John Freeston, in 1592; by Robert Gunsley, in 1610; by Sir Simon Bennet, in 1631; by Dr. John Radcliffe, in 1714; and by Dr. John Browne, in 1764.

I. Repeal, Interpretation, &c.

 - 3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such Board of a Faculty (as the case may be) shall communicate the matter of the proposed representation to the Master for the information of the College, and when a representation is made shall forthwith send him a copy of it.

X. Supplemental and Temporary Provisions.

Vested rights.

1. Subject to the provisions of Clause 5, herein-after contained, these Statutes shall operate without prejudice to any right or interest possessed by any person by virtue of his having, before they come into operation, become a member of the College or been elected to any College emolument or acquired a vested right to be elected thereto. But no such person shall, unless he agrees to place himself under these Statutes as herein-after mentioned, be entitled by virtue of them to any greater rights than he would have had if these Statutes had not been made.

- 2. The existing Master and any existing Fellow may at any Transfer. time within one year after the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, or with the consent of the Master and Fellows at any time afterwards, place himself under the provisions of these Statutes by giving to the Registrar of the College notice in writing of his intention so to do, and shall thenceforth hold his Mastership or Fellowship on the same tenure and under the same conditions as if he had been originally elected to it under these Statutes: Provided that the consent of the Master and Fellows to any such transfer shall be given by Resolution at a stated General Meeting, and may, if the Master and Fellows think fit, be made subject to any conditions as to the claim to a pension, the period for which length of service may be reckoned, or otherwise, as they may judge to be reasonable.
- 3. The Master and Fellows may at any time (and in the case Commutaof any Fellow holding a Fellowship under the provisions of the tion. Statutes of 1872 shall, if the revenues of the College permit), commute the Fellowship of any Fellow elected before the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, who being entitled to hold his Fellowship for life unless he marry, or for life simply, shall have exceeded sixty-five years of age and ceased to fill any office within the College, for an annuity equal in amount to the average value of the said Fellowship, inclusive of allowances, for the previous ten years; and such Fellow shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship. Such annuity shall be payable upon the same terms and conditions, as to continuance and determination, as those upon which the said Fellowship would have been tenable if it had not been commuted under this clause: Provided that, in the case of a Fellow not holding under the Statutes of 1872, no such commutation shall take place without his consent.
- 4. The Master and Fellows may (if they think fit) by Resolution at any stated General Meeting commute with the consent of any existing Fellow the total emoluments of the Fellowship held by him (inclusive of all allowances) for a fixed yearly sum of 300l. Such fixed sum shall in the appropriation of the revenues of the College have priority over all new charges created by these Statutes: Provided that, if in any year the revenues of the College be not sufficient to pay as well the emoluments of existing Fellows who shall not have accepted a commutation and the sum of 300l.

to each Fellow who shall have accepted it as the sum of 200l. to every Fellow holding under the provisions of these Statutes, then the said sums of 300l. and 200l. respectively shall be subject to abatement pro rata: Provided further that the commutation shall not be liable to abatement on account of any contribution with which the College may be charged for University purposes.

Limited Tenures.

5. The clauses of these Statutes relating to the existing Master ply to any person who at the and to existing Fel' peration holds an emolument time when these S ndition that his tenure of it within the College shall, from and af by Her Majesty in Council of new Statutes rela ument, be subject to the provisions of such nev such person shall thenceforth hold the said emo all respects to these Statutes, and for the time for and on which he would have been entitle had been in force at the date of his actual election to such emorument.

XI. Alteration of Statutes.

Power to amend the Statutes. The Master and Fellows may from time to time at any Extraordinary General Meeting, specially summoned for this purpose, by a majority consisting of not less than two thirds of those present and voting, repeal, alter, or add to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being, with the approval of Her Majesty in Council.

These Statutes are made wholly for University College within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

SCHEDULE OF PENSION SCHEME.

I.-Formation of a Pension Fund.

- 1. A Fund shall be formed for the payment of Pensions under these Statutes, which shall be called the 'Pension Fund,' and shall be constituted as follows:—
- (A) Into the capital of this Fund shall be paid all moneys which may be produced by the sale of livings, to an amount not exceeding in the whole 12,000l.; and also such portions of the annual sums herein-after mentioned as shall not from time to time be required for the payment of Pensions under this Scheme during any year in which such annual sums respectively shall become payable.

- (B) The following annual sums shall be paid and contributed by the College and its members, to the income of the said Pension Fund, from the sources and in the manner next herein-after mentioned:—
- (a) A sum of 2001. charged annually on the General Revenues of the College until such time as the total capital of the Fund shall amount to 25,0001; after which such charge on the General Revenues shall cease.
- (b) An annual sum of 400l. taken from the income of Dr. Radcliffe's Benefaction, called the Linton Fund, (or any less sum which the income of the Fund may in any year be sufficient to provide,) after due provision has been made for such improvements on the Linton Estate as have been already authorised, or may be hereafter considered necessary, and after payment of all charges on the said Fund now existing or created by these Statutes, except the provision hereby authorised to be made for the establishment of a Medical Fellowship. This annual payment shall continue until the total capital of the Fund shall amount to 40,000l.; after which the same shall cease.
- (c) An annual sum raised by a rateable deduction from the salaries of all Officers having claims to pensions under these Statutes; the deduction to be of such amount as would, if levied on the salaries of all Officers of the College belonging to classes for the members of which pensions are in certain cases and contingencies provided by these Statutes, be sufficient to produce 2001.

Salaries shall for this purpose be deemed to include the emoluments of the Mastership and those of Fellowships held by such Officers as aforesaid as well as all payments made in respect of the services of such Officers, whether from the corporate revenues, the Linton Fund, or the Tuition Fund: Provided that the emoluments of the Mastership shall not be liable to contribute to the said annual sum until after the next vacancy in the Mastership.

2. The Bursar shall keep the capital of the Pension Fund invested in the name of the College in such securities as Trust Funds may legally be invested in, and shall on or before the 20th July in each year carry to the capital of the fund and invest all dividends on capital, and other sums received under the provisions of this Schedule before the preceding 25th March, which shall not have been required for the payment of pensions, and shall at each annual Audit present to the College a statement of the accounts of the said Fund.

II.-Claims on the Pension Fund.

From the Pension Fund, created as herein-before described, Pensions shall be paid as follows:—

(a) To a retired Master in either of the cases provided for by Statute II. 6, and tions therein prescribed, 500l. a year for life.

(b) To a retirem a Pension may have been assigned by the learned by the learned by the learned assigned by the learned by the

If any such Fellow, having served the College in one or more of the said offices for twenty years or upwards, shall (without default or misconduct on his own part) not be re-elected a Fellow, or not be continued in such service, by the Master and Fellows, he shall be entitled as of right to a pension of 250*l*. per annum for life, subject only to the provisions herein-after contained. And any such Fellow, who after serving in any one of the said offices for twenty-five years or upwards shall voluntarily retire therefrom, shall be entitled as of right (subject only to the provisions herein-after contained) to a pension of 300*l*. per annum for life.

III.-Limitation of Claims.

- 1. No pension shall be payable from the Pension Fund until the capital of such Fund amount to 10,000.
- 2. The total amount of pensions payable at any one time out of the Pension Fund shall not exceed 1,500l. per annum.

- 3. No pension shall be payable from any other source than the Pension Fund, except in the case of a retired Master under Part II, (a), or (b), whose pension shall be charged primarily upon the Pension Fund, and, if and so far as that shall prove insufficient, upon the General Revenues of the College.
- 4. No pension, nor any part of any pension, shall be paid out of the capital of the Pension Fund.
- 5. No person shall have any claim upon the Pension Fund in any subsequent year in respect of the non-payment of his pension or of any part thereof in any previous year.
- 6. Every pension of an earlier date shall always be paid in full in priority to any pension of a later date, and pensions of the same date shall be paid pari passu.
- 7. The date at which the right to a pension shall be deemed to have vested shall be the date of retirement from service.
- 8. Under no circumstances shall a larger sum be paid as a pension than is sufficient to raise the entire income from all sources of a retired Prælector, or Tutor, to 900l. a year, or of a retired Master to 1,300l. a year. The income of any such person, arising from other sources than his pension, shall be ascertained, in case of dispute, upon the same principles, and in the same manner, as the amount of income disqualifying a Fellow from retaining his Fellowship is directed to be ascertained by Statute III. 15.

APPENDIX I.

Ordinance in belation to the Travelling Fellowships of the Foundation of Db. John Radcliffe.

(January 9th, 1858.)

The emoluments of the two Fellowships of the Foundation of Dr. John Radcliffe shall be applied, as the same shall become vacant, to the maintenance of three Fellowships, to be called Dr. John Radcliffe's Travelling Fellowships.

Each of the said Fellowships shall be of the annual value of two hundred pounds at least, and shall be tenable for three years from the day of election inclusive, and no longer.

No person shall be ineligible by reason of his not being a Master of Arts of the University of Oxford and entered on the Physic line, but no person shall be eligible unless he shall have passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and either have been placed in the first class in one at least of the public examinations of the University or have attained some prize or Scholarship within the University unattached to any College or Hall, and open to general competition among the members of the University.

No person shall be eligible who shall not have made a declaration that he intends to graduate in Medicine in the University of Oxford, with the graduate in Medicine in the University of Oxford, with the graduate in the University and to travel absolute to his improvement in that study, or who shall of election, legally authorised to practise as a pl

No Fellow of the said foundation shall be required as such to become a member of University College.

Any Fellow who after his election shall spend more than one year and six months in the whole within the United Kingdom, shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship.

The electors shall not be required to elect to more than one Fellowship in any one year.

In case at any election no person shall offer himself as a Candidate willing to make the declaration herein-before required, and who shall be of sufficient merit for election in the judgment of the electors, the election shall be thrown open for that turn to all persons who shall have been placed in the first class in the School of Natural Science, whether authorised to practise or not, and the person then elected shall not be required to make such declaration.

It shall be lawful for the Master and Fellows of University College, if they shall think fit, to commute the right to the two sets of rooms within the said College now belonging to the Fellows of the said foundation for the annual sum of ten pounds for each set. The said two sums of ten pounds each, and the emoluments of any vacant Fellowship during the vacancy thereof, shall be invested from time to time, and the income of such investments shall be applied, in the first instance, in defraying the expenses of the examination of Candidates for the said Fellowships, and subject thereto shall be added to the emoluments of the three Fellowships.

APPENDIX II.

Ordinance in Belation to the Bye-Fellowship of the Foundation of the Right Honourable Maby Anne Viscountess Sidmouth.

(March 24th, 1873.)

- 1. The Bye-Fellowship of the foundation of the Right Honourable Mary Anne Viscountess Sidmouth within University College shall be called the Stowell Civil Law Fellowship.
- 2. No person shall be eligible thereto who shall not have passed all the examinations required by the University of Oxford for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or who shall have completed the twenty-eighth Term from that of his matriculation inclusive.
- 3. Whenever the Bye-Fellowship shall fall vacant, an election thereto shall be made by the Master and Fellows of the College as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and on such day as they at any of their meetings shall appoint; and notice of the intended election shall be given by the said Master, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election.
- 4. The intellectual qualifications of the Candidates shall be tested by an examination in Jurisprudence, Roman or Civil Law, and such other subjects connected with the studies of the said University as the said Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine; and the said Master and Fellows shall elect that Candidate who, after such examination, shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be the Stowell Civil Law Fellow.
- 5. Whenever there shall not be any duly qualified Candidate whom the electors shall judge to be of sufficient merit for election, the election shall be postponed to some other day, to be fixed by the said Master and Fellows for that purpose; and every such postponed election shall be held and conducted in the same manner, and after the same notice, as if there had been no postponement.
- 6. The Bye-Fellow on his election shall enter his name on the books of the College, and shall not belong to any other College or Hall in the said University.
- 7. The Bye-Fellow after his election shall be required to take the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law as soon as the Statutes of the said University will allow; and shall also be required to enter at one of the Inns of Court within twelve calendar months, and to be called to the Bar within four years, from the day of his election.

- 8. The Bye-Fellowship shall be tenable for seven years from the day of election, and shall be of the annual value of one hundred and twenty pounds, less income tax.

BALLIOL COLLEGE.

I.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal, make the Statutes hereunto annexed for Balliol College in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common Seal, this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

L. S.

STATUTES OF BALLIOL COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Balliol College was founded by John Balliol of Barnard Castle, in the County of Durham and Dervorguilla of Galloway his wife (parents of John Balliol, King of Scotland). The foundation had been commenced during the lifetime of John Balliol, who died in 1269. The House was permanently endowed by his widow, who in the year 1282 gave to it the earliest Statutes. They provide for the establishment of a body of poor Students, who were to pursue the studies prescribed at the time by the University and to pray for the Souls of the benefactors of the College. Later codes, under which the Foundation has been enlarged, have superseded the original Statutes.

I.—The_College.

The Master and Scholars of Balliol College (hereinafter called Name the College) shall continue to be a body corporate having that ment.

The governing body of the College shall continue to be the Master and the Fellows of the College, exclusive of Probationer Fellows and Honorary Fellows.

In these Statutes the expression "the Master and Fellows" means the governing body so constituted, and the expression "the Fellows" does not include Probationer Fellows or Honorary Fellows.

II.-The Master.

Qualifications. 1. In elections to the Mastership the electors shall choose the person who is, in their judgment, most fit for the government of the College as a learning, and education.

STATUTES OF MERTON COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Merton College, otherwise called the House or College of Scholars of Merton, was founded in the year 1264 at Malden in Surrey by Walter de Merton, sometime Chancellor of England, and at a later period Bishop of Rochester. The first body of Statutes was given by the Founder in 1264, the third and last in 1274, in which year the House of the Scholars was transferred to Oxford. The purpose of the foundation is declared in the following introduction to the Statutes of 1274:-

'In nomine gloriosissimæ et individuæ Trinitatis, Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen. Ego, Walterus de Merton, clericus, illustris domini Regis Angliæ quondam Cancellarius, de Summi rerum et bonorum Opificis bonitate confisus, ejusdem gratiæ qui vota hominum pro sua voluntate ad bonum disponit et dirigit fidenter innisus, animique revolutione sæpe solicitus si quid sui nominis honori retribuam pro iis quæ mihi in hac vita abundanter retribuit, domum, quam scholarium de Merton intitulari seu nuncupari volui et mandavi, et quam in meo solo proprio, meis laboribus acquisito, videlicet, apud Maldon in comitatu Surriensi, ad perpetuam sustentationem scholarium in scholis degentium, pro alute animæ meæ et animarum domini Henrici quondam regis Angliz, necnon et germani sui Ricardi Romanorum regis inclyti, et antecessorum et hæredum suorum, ac parentum et benefactorum meorum omnium, ad honorem et gloriam Altissimi, ante turbationem in Anglia nuper subortam, fundavi et stabilivi, nunc, pace Anglize reformata ac pristina turbatione sedata, animi stabilitate perpetua approbo, stabilio et confirmo, locumque sibi habitationis et domum Oxonise, ubi universitas viget studentium, in meo territorio proprio, ecclesiæ Sancti Johannis contermino, concedo et assigno. Quam siquidem domum scholarium de Merton nuncupari volo, atque in ea scholares perpetuo moraturos esse decerno. Cui siquidem domui, seu scholaribus in eadem, Altissimo concedente, in perpetuum moraturis, maneria mea de Maldon et de Farlegh cum suis pertinentiis, quæ pro ipsorum scholarium et ministrorum altaris, qui in ea residentes erunt, sustentatione perpetua, tempore dictæ turbationis contuli, etiam in præsenti, pace regni reformata, concedo, ipsamque collationem spontanea et libera voluntate approbo, ac deliberato judicio ratifico et confirmo. Que etiam maneria dictis scholaribus, una cum aliis per me sibi sequisitis et acquirendis, apud eosdem scholares et fratres perpetuo permanere decerno, sub forma et conditionibus infra scriptis, tam circa personas quam circa regulam eorundem, annuente Domino, futuris temporibus jugiter observandis.'

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-One.

L. S.

A STATUTE FOR THE UNION OF MERTON COLLEGE AND ST. ALBAN HALL.

Whereas application for a complete union of Merton College in the University of Oxford and St. Alban Hall in the same University has been made to the University of Oxford Commissioners on the part of the College and of the Hall respectively in manner provided by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 22; (that is to say,)

On the part of the College by a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body as in the said Act mentioned with the consent in writing of the Visitor; And on the part of the Hall by a resolution of the Hebdomadal Council with the consent in writing of the Chancellor of the University:

We, the University of Oxford Commissioners, hereby make the following Statute:—

- 1. This Statute shall take effect on the first vacancy in the office of Principal of St. Alban Hall occurring after it shall have been approved by Her Majesty in Council; or, if at the time of such approval that office should be vacant, then from and immediately after such approval.
- 2. St. Alban Hall shall become and be completely united to Merton College; and no appointment shall thereafter be made to the office of Principal of the Hall.
- 3. All real and personal property held by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University in trust for the Hall, or for the members or any member of it as such or belonging to the members of the Hall in common, shall be vested in the Warden and Fellows of Merton College as part of the corporate property of the College, to which the Hall is united. The site and buildings of the Hall shall be vested in the College in the same manner and for the same purposes as the buildings of the College.
- 4. All persons who on the day when this Statute was gazetted under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 45, were members of the Hall, and shall continue to be members of it when this Statute takes effect, shall be entitled to become members of the College with the same rights as those of the same standing or degree who shall then be members of the College.

This Statute is a Statute for Merton College and is also a Statute for St. Alban Hall.

[Approved by the Queen in Council, 3rd May, 1882.]

STATUTES

COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Exeter College was founded by Walter de Stapledon, Bishop of Exeter, in the year of our Lord 1316; and was incorporated by Charter of Queen Elizabeth in 1565, under the name of Exeter College in the University of Oxford, and enlarged by a second endowment given in that year by Sir W. Petre, Knight, for the 'increase of sound learning, and for the common profit of the Church of Christ and of this Realm, and of the subjects of the same.'

I.—The Constitution of the College.

The Foundation shall consist of the Rector and Fellows, and of the Scholars hereinafter mentioned. The Governing Body of the College shall be the Rector and all actual Fellows not being Honorary Fellows, and the term 'the College,' when used in these Statutes with reference to the exercise of powers thereby, shall mean the Governing Body. Subject to the provisions of these Statutes, all things required or authorised to be done by the College, may be done by a majority of the Members of the College present and voting at a College Meeting.

II.—The Rector.

- 1. In the election of the Rector, the electors shall be bound to Qualificaelect the person in their judgment most fit to be Rector of the tions. College as a place of religion, learning, and education. He must be above the age of thirty years, and distinguished for literary, scientific, or academical attainments, or for services rendered to education in the University or elsewhere.
- 2. The election of the Rector shall be vested in the Members of Election. the Governing Body present at the election, and shall be conducted in the following manner. Within three days after a vacancy of the Rectorship becomes known in the College, the Sub-Rector, or in his absence, the Senior Member of the Governing Body then in Oxford, shall, by notice affixed to the doors of the Chapel, declare the Rectorship vacant, and shall convene a Meeting of the Governing Body for the purpose of appointing a day and hour for the election of a new Rector; and if no Member of the Governing Body is in Oxford within three days after the vacancy becomes known in College, the declaration shall be made and the Meeting convened as soon as conveniently may be by the Member of the Governing Body who shall first arrive in Oxford after the vacancy becomes known. Further notice of the vacancy and of the day and hour appointed for the election shall be given in such way as shall best secure publicity, and each Member of the Governing Body shall be cited to be present at the election; but the non-observance of these last two provisions shall not invalidate any election once completed. The hour thus appointed shall be some hour not earlier than 8 a.m., nor later than noon; and the day shall be the twenty-first day from the formal declaration of the vacancy, unless such declaration shall be made between the 30th day of June and the 1st day of September, in which case the election may be on any day not later than the 14th day of October next following: Provided that if such day fall on a Sunday, the election shall take place on the following day. The place of election shall be the College Chapel, or some other convenient place within the College walls appointed by the College. At the appointed time and place, the Sub-Rector, or in his absence the Senior Member of the Governing Body then present, shall first read aloud this Statute, and shall then administer to each elector, and make himself, the following declaration: 'I, A.B., declare that I will faithfully and conscientiously elect to the office of Rector him whom I believe to be the best fitted for that office by statutable and also by personal qualifications.' When this declaration has been made, the two Senior Members of the Governing Body then present shall receive the votes of each in order, privately and in writing. No elector shall vote for himself. After the votes have been received, the same two persons shall scrutinize the results together; and the Senior shall at once pronounce him elected for whom an absolute majority of those present shall have voted, or in case the votes of those present are equally divided between two Candidates, him for whom the Sub-Rector, or, in his absence, the Senior Member then present of the Governing Body, shall have voted. But if no such majority or equality be obtained before absence, the Senior Member of the Governing Body then present, shall have voted.

But if the Sub-Rector, or in his absence the Senior Member of the Governing Body then present, shall not have voted for any one of the persons obtaining such an equality of votes then those Members of the Governing Body who voted for the person or persons for whom a smaller number of votes has been given shall either withdraw from the election, or transfer their votes to one of those persons to whom an equal number of votes shall have previously been given. That person shall then be declared elected for whom a majority of the votes of those present and voting shall have been given, or, in case of an equality of votes, for whom the Sub-Rector, or, if he be absent or do not vote, for whom the Senior Member of the Governing Body present and voting, shall have Provided nevertheless that, if either at the first Meeting, or at the adjourned Meeting, there be an equal division of votes between two or more persons, and one only of these be an actual Fellow (not being an Honorary Fellow), that Fellow shall be pronounced elected: or if there be an equal division of votes between two or more such actual Fellows, the Senior of these Fellows shall be pronounced elected.

Within six days after the termination of the election, or as soon after that period as possible, the Rector Elect shall be admitted to his office by the Sub-Rector, or by the Senior Member of the Governing Body then present, in the presence of all the Fellows then in Oxford, by the administration of a declaration in a form to be prescribed by the Bylaws of the College.

If the Rector Elect refuse to make the declaration, the election shall be null and void, and the Sub-Rector, or, in his absence, the Senior Member of the Governing Body then present, shall proceed to another election, as if the office had been vacated by death or resignation.

3. The Rector shall exercise a general superintendence over the Privileges College in all its departments. The College Accounts shall be and duties. kept and the Revenues shall be managed by him, in conjunction with the Bursar or Bursars; but the Rector shall be charged with the administration of the College Estates. The Rector may with the consent of the College conduct the management of the College Estates by the agency of a deputy who shall be appointed and paid out of the Rector's stipend by the Rector; but the Rector shall be responsible to the College for the keeping of the accounts of the general revenues, and for the management of those revenues. In respect of the aforesaid duties he shall be held deemed to hold, by virtue of his office as Rector, the office of Principal Bursar of the College, and the sum of 2001. part of the annual stipend hereby assigned to him shall be deemed to be received by him in respect of such duties, but where the word Bursar is elsewhere used in these Statutes it shall not include the Rector. The Rector shall be a member of the Committee hereinafter instituted which is entrusted with the engagement, supervision, and dismissal of the College servants. The Rector may at the request of the College undertake the duties and receive the emoluments of a Lectureship. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, the Rector shall reside in the College during at least seven months in the year, five of which shall be in Term. At all Elections and College Meetings, and Meetings of the Educational Council, in case of an equality of votes, the Rector's vote shall be decisive. He shall receive the annual sum of 1,100l. out of the corporate revenues of the College, and shall have the use of lodgings free of all rent, and exempt from all rates (except poor rates), taxes and charges for such repairs as are not customarily paid for by tenants, and whenever the stipend of each Tutorial Fellowship is increased beyond scored according to the provisions of Statute III, the Rector's stipend shall be increased beyond 1,100l. by twice the sum added to the stipend of each Tutorial Fellowship. The Rector's stipend may, if the Rector and Fellows think fit, be further increased up to 1,350l., should the revenues of the College, in their judgment, be sufficient to render such augmentation advisable.

Tenure.

4. The Rectorship shall be tenable for life. If the Rector, being of the age of seventy years and having held office for fifteen years, resign the Rectorship, having first received the consent of the Governing Body to his retirement, the College may grant him a pension not exceeding 500l. a year for life. Appointment of Vice-Rector.

6. It shall be lawful for the College for any grave or urgent reason to give leave of absence to the Rector, and also, if they shall think fit, to appoint a Vice-Rector to hold office during the Rector's absence.

Incapacity of Rector.

7. If at any time the Rector shall become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor may, on the petition of the Rector presented with the consent of a majority of the Fellows present at a College Meeting specially summoned, direct that the Rector shall be permitted to retire from his office with such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Visitor shall deem suitable to the circumstances of the case.

If no such petition shall have been presented by the Rector, the Visitor may, if he think fit, on the petition of a majority of not less than two-thirds of the Fellows present at a College Meeting specially summoned, and after inquiry held by him, declare that the Rector has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, and may direct that the Rectorship shall be deemed to be vacant at the expiration of a time to be fixed by the order; and the College shall thereupon proceed to the election of a new Rector pursuant to these Statutes. The Visitor shall by the same order assign to the Rector on his ceasing to hold office such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per amum, as the Visitor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case.

A pension assigned by the Visitor under this Clause shall be provided for in the same manner as a pension granted under Clause 4.

It shall be the duty of the Sub-Rector for the time being, on a requisition presented to him by any three or more of the Fellows, to summon a meeting, in order to determine whether such a petition shall be presented.

8. If the Rector be guilty of grave immorality or gross mis- Misconconduct in his office, or become bankrupt, or make any statutory duct of Rector. composition with his creditors, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, after inquiry held on the petition of the majority of the Fellows, to deprive him of his office. It shall be the duty of the Sub-Rector for the time being, on a requisition presented to him by any three or more of the Fellows, to summon a meeting, in order to determine whether such a petition shall be presented.

III.—The Fellows.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Statute, every person shall Eligibility be eligible to a Fellowship who has passed all the Examinations to Fellowrequired by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or Las satisfied the conditions required by the University from candidates for incorporation as Graduates, or has become in any way a Member of Convocation, and who produces satisfactory testimonials of his moral character.

the election for such period as he approves.

Provision as to Chaplain Fellowship.

7. Whenever the Chaplain Fellowship becomes vacant, the College shall proceed to the election of a fit and proper person to be probationary Chaplain Fellow. Such election may be with or without examination as the College shall think fit. No person shall be eligible who is not at the time of election unmarried, and in Deacon's Orders at least, and if in Deacon's Orders he shall proceed to take Priest's Orders with as little delay as possible. The election to the Chaplain Fellowship need not be held on the ordinary day of election.

Any Chaplain Fellow who ceases to hold the office of Chaplain shall vacate his Chaplain Fellowship.

From and after the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, all right and power of the Dean and Chapter of Exeter to elect or appoint such Chaplain Fellow shall cease.

Proceedings at election.

8. The proceedings at an election to a Fellowship (other than the Chaplain Fellowship and Fellowships to which election is made without examination) shall be as follows:

- (i.) Notice of the election and of the day of examination shall be given by the Rector, or in his absence by the Sub-Rector, in such way as in his judgment may best secure publicity.
- (ii.) The election shall take place in the College Chapel, or in some other convenient place, and at such hour as may be appointed by the College.
- (iii.) At the appointed time and place, the Rector, or in his absence the Sub-Rector, shall continue, for the space of two hours, if necessary, to take the votes of the electors, until for each Fellowship vacant some one candidate has obtained an absolute majority of the votes of the electors present, when that candidate shall be pronounced elected.
- (iv.) If at the end of two hours the whole number of votes is equally divided between two of the candidates, he for whom the Rector (or, in his absence, the Sub-Rector) has voted, shall be pronounced elected.
- (v.) But if at the end of those two hours any vacancy or vacancies have not been filled up by either of these methods, then the names of those candidates for whom votes have been given at the last scrutiny shall be forwarded to the Visitor.
- (vi.) The Visitor may thereupon, if he think fit, select one of those candidates, and the candidate so selected shall be deemed to be elected by the College; but if the Visitor does not make any such selection, the Fellowship shall remain vacant until the ordinary day of election in the following year.
- 9. If in the judgment of the majority of the electors there be Provision not any candidate of sufficient merit to be elected to a vacant in case of insuffici-Fellowship, the vacancy shall not be filled, and the election shall, ency of subject to the provisions of this Statute, be postponed to the next candidate. ordinary day of election, or such other earlier day as the College may appoint.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Statute, every Fellow (the Year of Chaplain Fellow included) shall, during the year after his election, Probation. be a Probationary Fellow. On admission to probation, he shall be admonished by the Rector, or in his absence by the Sub-Rector, to be true and faithful to the College, to conform to the Statutes, and to be diligent in study.

A Probationary Fellow shall not be a member of the Governing Body, and shall not be present or vote at College meetings or elections; but shall for all other purposes be deemed to be a Fellow of the College.

11. If in the opinion of the College a Probationary Fellow is Admission to actual Fellowship. at the expiration of his year of probation duly qualified by his moral character and intellectual attainments to be a Fellow of the College, the Rector, or in his absence the Sub-Rector, shall admit him to an actual Fellowship of the College, upon his making such declaration, if any, as may be required by any Bylaw of the College for the time being.

But if at the end of the year of probation the College resolve that any Fellow (the Chaplain Fellow included) is not duly qualified by moral character or intellectual attainments to be a Fellow of the College, his Fellowship shall thereby cease and determine.

Two classes of Fellowships. 12. The Fellowships shall be of two Classes: Tutorial Fellowships, which shall include the Chaplain Fellowship; and Ordinary Fellowships.

part in the educational work of the College as the Educational Council may from time to time determine.

There shall be attached to each Tutorial Fellowship a fixed annual stipend of 200l. clear of Income Tax. But the stipend of each Tutorial Fellowship may, if the Rector and Fellows think fit, be increased out of any revenue at the disposal of the College to any sum not exceeding 300l. These emoluments shall be exclusive of any payments made to a Tutorial Fellow as Tutor or Lecturer out of the Tuition Fund.

If a Tutorial Fellow obtain temporary leave of absence, there shall be paid to him during his absence such portion of his stipend as the College shall determine, and the residue thereof shall be added to the Tuition Fund.

A Tutorial Fellow shall not accept or hold any occupation or office (including an Ecclesiastical office) which in the judgment of the College interferes with the discharge of his duties to the College.

A Tutorial Fellow may be elected for such period, not exceeding fifteen years from the date of his election, as the College may determine. If at the end of that term the College are of opinion that his re-election is desirable for the educational interest of the College, they may re-elect him for a further term not exceeding ten years. If he is re-elected for that further term, and the College require his services at the end of that term, they may re-elect him for a further term not exceeding five years, and so from time to time for further terms not exceeding five years. The re-election of a Fellow shall be decided at least a year before the expiration of his term of Fellowship. A Fellow whose re-election is in question shall not be present or vote at the College Meeting held for deciding the question of his re-election.

For the purposes of this clause, residing in Oxford shall mean the occupation of a dwelling-house or lodging in Oxford with pernoctation, and residing in College shall mean the occupation of rooms in College, or of a house in immediate communication with the College, with pernoctation.

- 16. Every Fellow elected to a Tutorial Fellowship, and not being then married, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his election. Every Tutorial Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the Rector and Fellows at any General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least three unmarried persons, being Officers of the College, and charged with the maintenance of discipline therein, resident in rooms in the College, during the usual College Terms. So long as that number is complete, a Tutorial Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as a Tutor or Lecturer.
- 17. The College may from time to time, at a Special Meeting, decide that a vacancy in a Tutorial Fellowship shall be filled without examination, and thereupon may fill the vacancy by electing any person distinguished by literary or scientific attainments, and who is, in the judgment of the College, eminently fitted to take part in its educational work. The College may, if it think fit, dispense with the year of probation in the case of any person so elected, and admit him at once to an actual Fellowship on his making the declaration then required.
- 18. At any time when the whole number of nine Tutorial Fellowships is not filled up the Rector and Fellows may, if they think fit, suspend the election to one Fellowship (not being the Chaplain Fellowship) for the purpose of applying the emoluments thereof to the maintenance of additional Open Scholarships within the number of twenty-two mentioned in Statute V. Clause 5. The whole period of such suspension shall not exceed two years. unless the Visitor shall, on the application of the College, authorise a suspension for a further specified period.

may from time to time determine.

Disqualification for Fellowships. 27. If a Fellow is elected to and accepts the Headship of this or any other College within the University, or a Professorship, or a Fellowship with emolument in any other College within the University, he shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship; except that in the case of any Fellow elected to a Professorship, the Rector and Fellows may, if they think fit, by a majority of two-thirds, at a Special Meeting, continue his Fellowship for a term not exceeding five years, and so from time to time for further like terms: Provided that in such case his emolument as Fellow shall not exceed such an amount as together with his net income from other sources will make up 900l. per annum.

Pensions.

28. Pensions may be bestowed on persons who have been Tutorial Fellows on the following conditions:—

If a Tutorial Fellow has been employed in the educational work of the College either as Fellow or otherwise for twenty years or upwards, but not for twenty-five years, and receives from the College permission to retire, the College may grant him a Pension not exceeding 200l. per annum, for ten years, or 150l. per annum for life.

If he has been employed as aforesaid for twenty-five years or upwards, and receives from the College permission to retire, the College may grant him a Pension for life not exceeding 2col. per annum.

If he has been employed as aforesaid for thirty years, or upwards, he shall be entitled, if the income of the Pension Fund is sufficient for the purpose, to a Pension for life, of the annual value of 300%.

If a Tutorial Fellow is compelled by permanent disability arising from illness to resign his Fellowship before he has served for twenty years, or is not re-elected at the end of the term for which he was first elected, the Rector and Fellows may, on proof to their satisfaction that the circumstances of the Tutorial Fellow are such as to require it, grant to him for such time and on such terms as they shall think fit a Pension not exceeding 150l. per annum.

29. If any person who, but for the following provision, would Disqualifibe eligible to a Pension, is entitled to receive from property in-cation by herited or acquired by gift or will, or secured under settlement, or property. held in trust for his benefit during his life, or from any office or employment (including an Ecclesiastical Office), tenable for life or during good behaviour, an annual income, the amount of which (clear of all deductions, except for income or property tax) exceeds 7001. he shall be disqualified for holding or continuing to hold his Pension.

If any such person receives from any office or employment not tenable for life or during good behaviour, or from any such office or employment together with property of the aforesaid kind, an income, the amount of which (clear of all such deductions as aforesaid) exceeds 7001, his Pension shall be suspended whilst he is in receipt of such income; and if his Pension be suspended for five vears under this clause, it shall then be finally vacated.

If any person, whilst holding a Pension, receives in any year from any other source an income, the amount of which, with his Pension, exceeds 700l. (clear of all such deductions as aforesaid), the excess over 700l. shall be deducted from his Pension for that vear.

Every person to whom a Pension has been granted shall, before receiving any instalment of his Pension, sign a declaration, in such form as the College may direct, to the effect that he is not entitled to or in receipt of an income which would disqualify him from receiving the amount of his Pension or any portion of that amount.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statutes hereunto annexed for Oriel College in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One. L. S.

STATUTES OF ORIEL COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Oriel College was founded by King Edward the Second, at the suggestion of his Almoner, Adam de Brome, Clerk, Principal Benefactor, and First Provost, in the year of our Lord 1326, and was afterwards further endowed by various Benefactors, namely, John Frank, Master of the Rolls; John Carpenter, Bishop of Worcester; William Smyth, Bishop of Lincoln; Richard Dudley, Chancellor of the Church of Sarum, and others. The College was incorporated in the year 1603 by Letters Patent of King James the First, under the name of the Provost and Scholars of the House of the Blessed Mary the Virgin, in Oxford, commonly called Oriel College, of the Foundation of Edward the Second of famous memory, sometime King of England.

I.—The College.

The College shall consist of a Provost and such number of Fellows as is in these Statutes provided.

In these Statutes the words 'the Provost and Fellows,' or 'the Fellows,' do not include Probationer Fellows or Honorary Fellows; and the words 'Lord Chancellor' mean the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and include a Lord Keeper of the Great Seal.

II .- The Provost.

 The right of election to the Provostship shall be vested in the Fellows present at the meeting for the election.

In elections to the Provostship the Fellows shall choose the person who is, in thei is sost fit for the government of the College as a place arning, and education.

2. The election of any time not less than vacancy shall have after the vacancy slabsence the Senior summon a prelimitand hour for a meet on every vacancy, be held at ore than ninety days, after the soon as conveniently may be known, the Dean, or in his ence in the University, shall the Fellows to appoint a day for the election of a new Provost. Notice of the day and not appointed for such meeting for election shall be sent to every Fellow at his usual place of address at least twenty-one days before the day of election. That person for whom an absolute majority of the Fellows present shall have voted shall be deemed elected. In case of the whole number of the votes of the Fellows present being equally divided between two persons, a second vote shall be taken; and if the equal division then still remain, the names of the two persons so voted for shall be presented within one week to the Lord Chancellor; and such one of them as he shall choose shall be deemed elected.

The meeting for the election may be adjourned from time to time. Whenever a Provost shall not have been elected within ninety days after the occurrence of the vacancy, the appointment of a Provost shall for that turn lapse to the Lord Chancellor.

3. As soon as may be after the election, one of the Fellows, deputed for that purpose, shall present the Provost to the Lord Chancellor, and shall deliver to the Lord Chancellor a letter under the College seal, announcing the result of the election. The Provost shall, in the presence of the Lord Chancellor and of the Fellow so deputed, make a declaration that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office, and observe the Statutes and Bylaws of the College for the time being.

The Lord Chancellor shall deliver to the Provost a written notification of his declaration having been made, and the Provost shall, on the earliest opportunity, read this notification to the Fellows assembled in the College Chapel.

- 4. The Provost shall reside in the College seven calendar months at least in each year, whereof eighteen weeks at least shall be in the usual College Terms. But in case of the Provost's sickness, or for any other urgent cause, the Lord Chancellor may dispense with the Provost's residence for such a period as may seem to the Lord Chancellor to be required by the necessities of the case.
- 5. The Provost shall superintend the property and domestic arrangements of the College, as well as the discipline and education therein.
- 6. The Provost shall receive out of the Corporate Revenue, so long as the cure of souls of the Benefice of Purleigh, and the Canonry in the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, or either of them, shall continue to be annexed to his office, the annual sum of 450l.; and after the severance of the office of Provost as well from the said cure of souls as from the said Canonry, the annual sum of 800l. in addition to the annual sum which under the provisions of the Universities and College Estates Amendment Act, 1880, shall be charged upon lands or the other endowments of the benefice of Purleigh and payable to the Provost for the time being. The Provost shall also be entitled to the use of his lodgings free of rent, the expense of necessary repairs being defrayed by the College.
- 7. If at any time the Provost shall become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Lord Chancellor may, on the petition of the Provost, presented with the consent of a majority of the Fellows present at a College meeting specially summoned, direct that the Provost shall be permitted to retire from his office with such a pension not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Lord Chancellor shall deem suitable to the circumstances of the case.

If no such petition shall have been presented by the Provost, the Lord Chancellor may, if he think fit, on the petition of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting specially summoned, and after inquiry held by him, make an order declaring that the Provost has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, and may direct that the Provostship shall be deemed to be vacant at the expiration of a time to be fixed by the same order, and the Fellows shall thereupon proceed to the election of a new Provost, pursuant to these Statutes. The Lord Chancellor shall by the same order assign to the Provost on his ceasing to hold office such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Lord Chancellor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. Any pension assigned under this clause to a Provost shall be provided for and paid as follows, namely, one half shall be deducted from the stipend of his successor in the office of Provost, and the other half shall be paid out of the corporate revenues of the College.

It shall be the duty of the Dean, or in case of his absence, of the Senior Fellow in residence for the time being, on a requisition presented to him by any three of the Fellows, to summon a meeting giving not less than a fortnight's notice thereof, in order to determine whether such a petition shall be presented on the part of the Fellows.

8. If the Provost is guiduct in his office, or of his office by the petition of a majority of appointed.

It shall be the duty a him by any three of the less than a fortnight's no such a petition shall be e immorality or gross misconankrupt, he may be deprived or, after inquiry held on the present at a meeting specially

- 1. There shall be three classes of Fellows, to be called 'Professor Fellows,' 'Tutorial Fellows,' and 'Ordinary Fellows' respectively. Any Fellow of one class shall vacate his Fellowship on becoming a Fellow of another class.
- 2. The Regius Professor of Modern History shall be by virtue of his office a Professor Fellow, and, if not already holding a Fellowship, shall be admitted an actual Fellow so soon as may be after his appointment as Professor. He shall receive the emolument of an Ordinary Fellowship, together with the further yearly sum of 400l. out of the Corporate Revenues. The payment of this sum shall be dependent on the condition that a further sum of 300l. per annum shall continue to be paid to the Professor out of the University Chest.
- 3. The Provost and Fellows may at any Stated General Meeting, by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting, elect any Professor or Public Lecturer in the University, who shall have been at any time a Fellow of the College, to be a Professor Fellow without emolument.

Professor Fellows without emolument shall not be entitled to receive any stipend out of the Corporate Revenues; but shall be entitled to all other rights and privileges enjoyed by other Fellows of the College.

- 4. If and when the Canonry in the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester heretofore annexed to the Provostship shall have been annexed and united to a Professorship in the University, the holder of such Professorship shall by virtue of his office be a Professor Fellow without emolument, and if not already holding a Fellowship shall be admitted an actual Fellow so soon as may be after his appointment as Professor.
- 5. Subject to the provisions of Clause 20 of this Statute, every person admitted to a Professor Fellowship shall hold such Fellowship so long as he shall hold his Professorship, and no longer.
- 6. A Professor Fellow may be deprived of his Fellowship for the same causes and in the same manner as other Fellows of the College; and the Bylaws and Regulations of the College may be enforced against him as against other Fellows. If a Professor Fellow receiving emoluments as such be so deprived, that part of his emoluments which consists in the stipend of an Ordinary Fellowship shall sink into the corporate revenues of the College, but the annual sum constituting the residue of such emoluments shall continue to be payable to the Professor. If a Professor Fellow be deprived of his Professorship by any authority constituted in that behalf by Statutes made for the University he shall ipso facto vacate his Fellowship.
- 7. No Professor Fellow shall be entitled in right of his Fellow-ship to any option of benefices in the patronage of the College.
- 8. Every Tutor of the College shall be by virtue of his office a Tutorial Fellow, and, if not already holding an Ordinary Fellowship, shall be admitted an actual Fellow so soon as may be after his appointment as Tutor.
- 9. A Tutorial Fellow shall not be entitled by virtue of his Tutorial Fellowship to any stipend out of the Corporate Revenues, but—
- (1) Every person who being an Ordinary Fellow shall become a Tutorial Fellow shall be entitled to receive the emoluments of his Ordinary Fellowship so long as he shall continue to be a Tutorial Fellow.
- (2) If any person not being an Ordinary Fellow is appointed to be a Tutor of the College, the Provost and Fellows may at the time of his appointment, or at any time thereafter, annex to his Tutorial Fellowship the emoluments of any vacant Ordinary Fellowship.

10. The Ordinary Fellows shall be not fewer in number the together with any Tutorial Fellows receiving the emoluments Ordinary Fellowships under the last clause will make up ti whole number of Ordinary and Tutorial Fellows to twelve.

such Bylaws be not repugnant to any of the provisions of these Statutes; subject to such right of appeal to the Lord Chancellor on the part of any person who may deem himself aggrieved thereby, as is hereinafter provided.

X.—Government of the College.

- 1. There shall be two Stated General Meetings at least of the Provost and Fellows in every year on such days as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time appoint. Any Stated General Meeting may be adjourned by resolution of the meeting to a day to be specified in the resolution. Except in cases in which the concurrence of any specified proportion of the Provost and Fellows, or the consent of the Provost, is hereby made requisite, every question arising at any College meeting shall he decided by a majority of the votes of those present. In all College meetings, elections, and admissions, and in proceedings for or with a view to the deprivation of Fellows, Scholars, and Exhibitioners, the Provost shall, if the votes are equal, have an additional casting vote. Any rule or usage of the College which prohibits or restrains, expressly or by implication, any person present at any College meeting from bringing forward thereat any question which he may think proper, or from having such question put to the vote, shall, so far as regards such prohibition or restraint, be void: Provided that the Provost and Fellows may make from time to time such rules not inconsistent with any of the provisions of these Statutes for the special summoning of General Meetings (other than Stated General Meetings), and for regulating the proceedings at College Meetings, and for determining what business shall be transacted thereat, and for fixing (if they shall think fit) the notice to be given before holding any meeting or before bringing forward any question, and the manner of giving such notice, as they shall think proper.
- 2. The power which is given by these Statutes to the Dean to act in place of the Provost, and the power of any officer of the College who may hereafter be authorised by any Statute or Bylaw to act in place of the Provost, shall be deemed to extend to all the acts which the Provost is hereby authorised or directed to do, except the giving consent to any resolution by which the rights or privileges of the Provost may be in any way altered, and to which his consent may be necessary.

XI.—Disposal of Revenue.

- 1. The application of the Revenues of the College under the provisions and to the purposes of these Statutes shall be subject to any Statute or Statutes made for the University under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for enabling or requiring the Colleges to make contributions out of their revenues to U1 poses, and to the payment of the charges imposed the
- 2. Income arising f and applicable to the v or Exhibition within t benefit of the College

 imposed on the Colleg aforesaid in the same manner as it such income wment, benefaction, or trust, f any Fellowship, Scholarship, to any other purpose for the or any member of it (including vsons), shall be liable to conarges for University purposes s made for the University as aforesaid in the same manner as it such income had formed part of the general revenue of the College, except in the following cases:—

- (a) Income of, or constituting, any emolument the trusts or directions affecting which are protected from alteration by section 13 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.
- (b) Income wholly appropriated to any emolument, not being a Fellowship in elections to which a school has a right of preference within the meaning of section 39 of the said Act (not including any such emolument which is held for the time being under an election held by open competition).
- 3. If at any time it shall appear to the Lord Chancellor that the revenues of the College have become more than sufficient to provide for its expenditure, the Lord Chancellor may, if he think fit, make an order directing that any part of the surplus revenue shall be set apart and applied to purposes relative either to the College or to the University, according to a scheme submitted or to be submitted to him by the Provost and Fellows and approved by him. After an order so made by the Lord Chancellor, any sums thereby directed to be set apart shall be applied in conformity with a scheme submitted to and approved by the Lord Chancellor as aforesaid, and under an order of the Lord Chancellor confirming the same, and not otherwise.
- 4. The expenditure of the College shall, in the foregoing clause, be deemed to include as well the payment of charges for University purposes imposed by Statutes made for the University as aforesaid, as the application of revenue to the purposes of these Statutes reasonable and customary expenditure (not inconsistent with them) for College purposes extraordinary expenditure (when required) on estates, and any reasonable donations for educational or charitable objects or connected with the duties of the College as a holder of property.

- 5. Before any scheme is confirmed by the Lord Chancellor, the Provost shall communicate it to the Vice-Chancellor for the information of the Hebdomadal Council of the University; and the Lord Chancellor shall consider any representations which the Hebdomadal Council may judge it expedient for the interests of the University to make with reference to such scheme.
- 6. An order made by the Lord Chancellor confirming a scheme submitted to him by the Provost and Fellows shall continue in force until a new scheme varying it or in substitution for it shall have been submitted and confirmed in like manner.
- 7. The Provost and Fellows, or the Provost and any two Fellows, or any three Fellows, may at any time make a representation to the Lord Chancellor requesting him to exercise, if he think fit, the powers of this Statute. But this provision shall not be deemed to affect the Lord Chancellor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.
- 8. Subject to the right of the Lord Chancellor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenues of the College shall from time to time be applied by the Provost and Fellows at their discretion to any purposes relative to the College and not inconsistent with these Statutes, or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.
- 9. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship, or of any Fellowship, or Scholarship in the College; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Lord Chancellor or under any express power herein-before contained) to the number of Fellowships or of Scholarships, the payments to the Tuition Fund, or to an Exhibition Fund, or the provision for a Pension Fund, which are respectively authorised by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the Provost and Fellows from making payments under the preceding clause out of the surplus revenue of the College for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

XII .- The Visitor.

 These Statutes shall be without prejudice to the right of the Queen's Majesty, Her heirs and successors, to visit the College.

2. The Provost and Fellows shall, in each year, lay before the Lord Chancellor the Accounts of the College, published under the provisions contained in these Statutes, and shall also furnish to him such additional information, if any, as he shall require for enabling him to form a information of the means and requirements and general state and to the Lord Chancellor that the College are insufficient to xpenditure of the College, and Statutes, it shall be lawful for and Fellows, to direct that any shall, either permanently or t vacant, or that the charges ateably diminished, either permanently or for a limited pe_od: Provided that no such diminution shall be made in the charge imposed by Statute III. Clause 2, unless thirty days' notice thereof shall first have been given to the Vice-Chancellor of the University, and that no such rateable diminution shall affect a then existing holder of a Scholarship or Exhibition.

- 4. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, once in every ten years (or oftener, if and whenever it shall appear expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being to do so), without any request or application from the Provost and Fellows, or from any member of the College, to visit the College, and to exercise at such viritation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of General Visitor of a College, any Statute or usage of the College to the contrary notwithstanding. The Provost and Fellows shall, so often as they may be required to do so, answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor or the Lord Chancellor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.
- 5. As often as any question shall arise on which the Provost and Fellows shall be unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows, or for the Provost, or for any three of the Fellows, to submit the same to the Lord Chancellor; and it shall be lawful for him to declare what is the true construction of such Statute or Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

- 6. It shall be lawful for the Provost, or for any Fellow, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Provost and Fellows, and for any Scholar or Exhibitioner who may have been deprived of his Scholarship or Exhibition, to appeal against such act, or decision, or sentence, to the Lord Chancellor; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to adjudicate on such appeal, and to disallow and annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence, as he shall deem just.
- 7. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, on the complaint of the Provost, or of any of the Fellows, to disallow and annul any Bylaw or Resolution of the Provost and Fellows which shall, in his judgment, be repugnant to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being.
- 8. In the event of the Great Seal being at any time in Commission, the First Commissioner of the Great Seal for the time being shall have and exercise all the powers by these Statutes conferred upon the Lord Chancellor.

XIII.—Provisions relative to the University.

- 1. If at any time it appear to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that any provisions of these Statutes, or of any other Statutes of the College in force for the time being, respecting the accounts of the College, or the audit or publication thereof, or the exercise of the borrowing powers of the College, or any other provision of such Statutes, by the non-observance of which any interest of the University is liable to be prejudicially affected, is not duly observed, the Hebdomadal Council may submit a representation to the Lord Chancellor; and the Lord Chancellor shall, upon receiving such representation inquire into the matter, and, after considering any representation made by the Provost and Fellows, make such order therein as he shall deem just for enforcing the due observance of the said Statutes in the matter to which the representation shall relate.
- 2. The Hebdomadal Council, or any Board of a Faculty in the University, may in like manner make a representation to the Lord Chancellor, if it shall appear that the provisions of these Statutes respecting the subjects of examinations for Fellowships are not duly observed.

3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such Board of a Faculty (as the case may be) shall communicate the matter of the proposed representation to the Provost for the information of the College, and when a representation is made shall forthwith send him a copy of it.

XIV .- Supplemental and Temporary Provisions.

1. The Provost and dient for the interests the Corporate Reve hold elections to Feb the whole number a reduced to twelve cluding those held to twelve.

The emoluments of Fellows shall ha annum, or such greater sum (no shall be equal to the emoluments (inclusive of allowances) received by each of the existing Fellows for the same year. This provision shall apply to any Fellow of the College elected after the 10th day of August 1880, and before the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council.

- 2. The emoluments of such existing Fellowships as shall fall vacant after the approval of these Statutes, shall be applied in such manner as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time determine in bringing into effect the provisions of these Statutes, subject as follows:-
- (1) The first Fellowship which shall fall vacant after the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council shall not be filled up, and the yearly sum of 200l. shall be thenceforth paid to the Regius Professor of Modern History in augmentation of his emoluments.

The further augmentation of such emoluments to the total amount mentioned in Statute III, Clause 2, shall be made when and as there shall be Corporate Revenue available for the purpose after satisfying such of the other charges created or authorised by these Statutes as the Provost and Fellows shall deem it expedient to satisfy in priority thereto.

Provided nevertheless, that the existing Regius Professor of Modern History shall not be entitled to any augmentation of his emoluments unless he become subject, as regards duties, residence, and in all other respects to any new Statutes made or to be made for the University and in force for the time being in relation to his Professorship; and provided also, that he shall not be entitled to the payment in full of the yearly sum of 400% directed to be paid to him by Statute III, Clause 2, so long as he shall continue to hold his existing Fellowship, and shall not have accepted in lieu thereof an Ordinary Fellowship under these Statutes: but such an amount shall be deducted from the said yearly sum of 400% as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time deem reasonable.

(2) The emoluments of the second and third Fellowships which shall not be filled up shall be applicable in the first place to the Payment of the stipend of the Provost, and so long as the receipts from this source, whether from the non-occurrence of vacancies, or from any other cause, shall fall short of 400l. a year, the stipend of the Provost shall be diminished by the amount of such deficiency.

In the preceding clauses the emoluments of any Fellowship not filled up shall be taken to be the amount which would in each year have been received by the holder thereof if the same had not become vacant; but the Provost and Fellows may at any time, if they think fit, determine that the emoluments of such vacant Fellowships shall be thenceforth taken to be the fixed sum of 200*l*. per annum.

- 3. The sum of 400l. directed to be paid to the Tuition Fund shall not be payable in full so long as any of the existing Tutors shall continue to hold his office without having transferred himself to the footing of a Tutorial Fellow under these Statutes, but one-fourth part only shall be payable in respect of each Tutor so transferring himself, and in respect of each new Tutor appointed. Provided that in any year in which the emoluments (exclusive of allowances) of any existing Fellow shall not exceed 280l., not more shall be paid to the Tuition Fund in respect of each such fourth part than the excess, if any, of such share above the sum of 180l.
- 4. The provisions of these Statutes with respect to the Exhibitions of Bishop Robinson shall come into effect at such time as the Provost and Fellows shall by Bylaw determine. Until that time the regulations in force before the making of these Statutes shall continue to be observed.
- 5. The Provost and Fellows may if they think fit at any Stated General Meeting transfer with his own consent any existing

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statutes hereunto annexed for the Queen's College, in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

STATUTES OF THE QUEEN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Under licence granted January 18, in the year 134%, by King Edward the Third, this College was founded with a special purpose to promote the study of Theology, 'ad Dei honorem, Ecclesiae profectum, animarumque salutem' by Robert de Eglesfield, Clerk, Chaplain to Queen Philippa, after whom the foundation was originally called 'The College of the Hall of Queen's Scholars of Oxford.'

Its privileges were confirmed by the charters of several sovereigns, and its property increased by the donations of 'sundry well-disposed persons to learning,' till in the reign of Queen Elizabeth it appeared that in the said 'charters and donacions diverse and not one certain name of the said College is used;' and letters patent were granted in the twenty-sixth year of her reign, and confirmed by Act of Parliament in the following year, endowing the College with all such lands and revenues as presently and at any time in and since the time of King Edward the Third they were possessed of, under the name of 'the Provoste and Schollers of the Quene's Colledge in the Universitye of Oxforde, Warden of the Hospitall of Godshouse in the towne of Southampton.'

I.—The Provost.

1. The election of the Provost shall be vested in the actual Electors. Fellows of the College.

ualifica-

2. The Provost shall be a person of unblemished character, a Master of Arts or a Doctor in Theology, Law, or Medicine of the University of Oxford. The electors shall choose that person (being so qualified) who in their judgment shall be most fit for the government of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research.

A STATUTE FOR THE PARTIAL UNION OF THE QUEEN'S COLLEGE AND ST. EDMUND HALL.

Whereas application for a partial union of The Queen's College, in the University of Oxford, and St. Edmund Hall in the same University, has been made to the University of Oxford Commissioners on the part of the College and of the Hall respectively, in manner prescribed by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 22; (that is to say,)

On the part of the College by a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body as in the said Act mentioned, with the consent in writing of the Visitor;

And on the part of the Hall by a resolution of the Hebdomadal Council, with the consent in writing of the Chancellor of the University;

We, the University of Oxford Commissioners, hereby make the following Statute:—

- 1. This Statute shall take effect on the first vacancy in the office of Principal of St. Edmund Hall occurring after the approval of it by Her Majesty in Council, or on the passing of such resolution as is mentioned in clause 18 herein-after contained before the occurrence of such a vacancy. If at the time of such approval the office of Principal shall be vacant, the said Statute shall take effect from and immediately after such approval.
- 2. The Chancellor of the University shall cease to be the Visitor of the Hall, and the powers heretofore vested in him as such Visitor shall hereafter be vested in the Visitor of the College.
- 3. All real and personal property held by the Chancellor, Master, and Scholars of the University in trust for the Hall or for the members or any member of it as such, or belonging to the members of the Hall in common (including the advowson and right of presentation to the living of Gatcombe), shall be vested in the Provost and Fellows of The Queen's College, and the same and the income thereof (including the rent of rooms within the Hall) shall be held and administered respectively as part of the corporate property and corporate revenue of the College. The site and buildings of the Hall shall be vested in the College in the same manner and for the same purposes as the buildings of the College.

ents by members of the Hall ne College, and shall be applisame manner as like payments its for tuition shall form part

- 6. The general revenues of the College shall be charged with the repair and proper sustentation of the buildings of the Hall, and with all payments hereby directed or authorised to be made, except such as are directed to be made out of the Tuition Fund.
- 7. Members of the Hall in statu pupillari shall in respect of College tuition and instruction be entitled to the same rights and advantages as members of the College; and the statutory duty of the College to provide courses of instruction for its members in statu pupillari shall extend to and include members of the Hall.
- 8. The election to the office of Principal of the Hall shall be vested in the same persons and shall be made in the same manner as the election to the Provostship of the College; except that the Provost, if resident and present, shall do at the election of a Principal what the Senior Fellow in residence and the Senior Fellow present are by the Statutes of the College required to do at the election of a Provost, and that, if the votes are equally divided between two persons, the person for whom the Provost shall have voted shall be declared elected.
- 9. The Principal shall be a person of unblemished character, a Master of Arts, or a Doctor in Theology, Law, or Medicine. electors shall choose that person (being so qualified) who in their judgment shall be most fit for the performance of the duties herein assigned to the Principal of the Hall as a place of education, religion, and learning.
 - 10. The Principal shall in virtue of his office be an Official Fellow of the College, but shall not as such be reckoned in the maximum number of Official Fellows allowed by the Statutes of the College, and shall not, in applying the provisions of Statute II, clauses 19 and 20, be reckoned in the number of Official Fellows; and he shall not be liable to vacate his Official Fellowship by marriage. He shall be in virtue of his office a Tutor of the College and shall exercise the offices of Dean and Tutor in the Hall. He shall also, if he be in Priest's Orders, act as Chaplain for the performance of Divine Service in the Chapel of the Hall.

The Provost and Fellows may, for any cause which they judge to be sufficient, relieve the Principal from the duty of acting as Chaplain; and shall in that case, or in case he be not in Priest's Orders, make provision for the performance of that duty by a Chaplain or Chaplains appointed in his stead.

- 11. The Principal shall receive from the revenues of the College, in respect of his Official Fellowship, the annual sum of 300l., and also, if he acts as Chaplain, a further yearly sum of 50l. He shall receive in addition a yearly sum of 500l. from the Tuition Fund. He shall reside within the Hall, and shall be entitled to occupy the Principal's lodgings, free of rent, rates, and taxes, necessary repairs being defrayed by the College.
- 12. A Principal resigning his office may receive a pension from the College on the same scale and conditions as other Official Fellows.
- 13. The provisions of Statute I, clause 7 of the College Statutes under which the office of Provost may in the circumstances therein mentioned be declared vacant by the Visitor, and the provisions of clause 8 of the same Statute relating to the deprivation of a Provost, shall extend and be applicable to the Principal. Provided that what the Senior Fellow in residence is thereby required to do, shall in the case of the Principal be done by the Provost, and that the annual sum corresponding to that which under clause 7 the Visitor is authorised to assign to a Provost vacating his office, shall, in the case of a Principal, be not less than 300%. nor more than 400%, and shall be paid out of the corporate revenue of the College.
- 14. The Provost and Fellows may, if they think fit, from time to time appoint a qualified person or persons to assist the Principal in any of his duties, assigning to the person or persons so appointed such reasonable remuneration as the Provost and Fellows shall deem just, and may also, if they think fit, assign to a person so appointed the title of Vice-Principal. The Provost and Fellows may, at the time when any such appointment is made, determine whether service in any such capacity shall count as service for the purposes of Statute XIII of the College Statutes.

15. Persons admitted to be members of the Hall shall be admitted by the Principal, subject to such regulations as the Provost and Fellows of the College shall from time to time at any Stated General Meeting determine.

Every person so admitted may be removed from the Hall by the Provost and Fellows for es as in their judgment may require his removal.

All members of the regulations as to residuon Divine Worship (s Tests Act, 1871,) as t time determine.

required to conform to such ion, discipline, and attendance provisions of the Universities d Fellows shall from time to

16. Subject to the ne tion herein-after given to the Visitor, the Provost as Il, as speedily as the revenues of the College will permit, construes within the Hall not fewer than twenty-four Exhibitions to be tenable by members of the Hall, the annual emoluments of which shall be not less than 251. each, inclusive of rooms and other allowances (if any). These Exhibitions shall be awarded by the Provost and Fellows to deserving persons in need of assistance to support them at the University, after open competition among candidates so qualified, subject to any conditions as to limitation of age and standing or otherwise as the Provost and Fellows may think expedient. Every such Exhibition shall be tenable for the same times and on the same conditions as the Scholarships of the College, and the Exhibitioners shall be subject to the same regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on Divine Worship as the Scholars, and may be fined or deprived of their Exhibitions for the same causes and in the same manner.

- 17. The Visitor may, if he think fit, on an application made to him by the Provost and Fellows from time to time, direct that the number and value of the Exhibitions shall be varied, or that the annual sum which would under the foregoing provisions be applied to the maintenance of Exhibitions, or some part of such annual sum, shall be applied in some other manner to be approved by him for diminishing the expense of University education to deserving Students residing within the Hall and in need of assistance to support them at the University.
- 18. If at any time after this Statute shall have been approved by Her Majesty in Council, the present Principal shall notify in writing to the Provost and Fellows that he is willing to place himself under the provisions of this Statute, the Provost and Fellows may, if they think fit, within six months after the receipt of such notification, by resolution passed at a general meeting, determine that this Statute shall be brought into immediate operation. Upon and from the passing of such resolution the Principal shall become and be subject to the provisions of this Statute, and shall hold his office on the same tenure and conditions as if he had been elected under it: Provided that—

- (a) The provisions of Statute I, clause 7, of the College Statutes shall not be applied to the present Principal without his consent;
- (b) If he be at any time desirous to resign the offices of Dean and Tutor, or that of Chaplain within the Hall, he may do so without vacating the office of Principal, or the Official Fellowship thereto annexed, and the total emoluments of his office shall then be diminished in the former case by the sum of 250l. per annum, and in the latter case by the sum of 50l. per annum. The Provost and Fellows shall in either case make provision for the performance within the Hall of the duties resigned by the Principal;
- (c) Provided further that, if and so long as the present Principal retains the living of Gatcombe, the emolument payable to him by the College under this Statute shall be reduced by the annual sum of 3501.

This Statute is a Statute for the Queen's College, and is also a Statute for St. Edmund Hall.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

STATUTES OF ALL SOULS' COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

The College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, of Oxford. commonly called All Souls' College, was founded by King Henry VI, by a Patent of Foundation bearing date 20th May 1438. With him was associated, as co-founder, Henry Chichele, Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of All England, by whom the College was endowed and its Statutes issued, 20th April 1443. The College was expressed to be founded for Study and Prayer. It was a Foundation designed in part for the offering of prayers for all the souls of the faithful departed, and especially for the souls of Henry V, King of England and France, of Thomas Duke of Clarence, and of other nobles and faithful subjects of the realm who died in the French wars; in part to promote the study of Philosophy and Arts, of Theology, and of the Civil and Canon Law. To this end its Statutes required that of its forty Fellows twenty-four should graduate in Arts and Philosophy and should be called Artists, sixteen should graduate in Civil Law and should be called Jurists.

I.—Constitution of the College.

The College shall consist of the Warden and such number of Fellows as is in these Statutes provided.

II.—The Warden.

1. The Warden shall be the head of the College, and shall take Office and precedence over all members thereof.

STATUTES OF CORPUS CHRISTI COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

The College of Corpus Christi, in the University of Oxford, was founded by Richard Fox, Bishop of Winchester, in the year 1516, for objects set out in the Preamble of the Founder's Statutes as follows:—

'Ad Honorem pretiosissimi corporis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ejusque Matris integerrimae, ceterorumque Sanctorum omnium, ecclesiarum Wintoniensis, Dunelmensis, Bathoniensis et Wellensis, necnon Exoniensis, cathedralium patronorum, nos Ricardus Fox. divina vocatione Wintoniensis Episcopus, Collegii Corporis Christi in Universitate Oxoniensi fundator, extructor et dotator, veneratissimo sanctissima et individua Trinitatis nomine invocato, nostra eidem collegio statuta condidimus, et in hoc originali libro, ad perennem et perpetuam memoriam et stabilitatem, conscripsimus et consignavimus: ad hunc modum in ca præfati.

'Non habemus hic civitatem manentem, ut ait Apostolus, sed futuram inquirimus cælestem, ad quam facilius et celerius nos pervenire speramus, si, dum in hac vitâ peregrinamur miserâ et mortali, scalam erigamus, unde faciliorem paremus ascensum; dextrum latus scalæ appellantes virtutem, sinistrum vero scientiam, gradibus interpositis qui utrisque serviant lateribus. Habent enim utraque latera suos gradus a quibus aut in alta levemur, aut in ima premamur. Nos itaque Ricardus Fox, divina providentia Wintoniensis Episcopus, hac scalâ et ipsi cælum ascendere et ingredi cupientes, et aliis ad ascensum et ingressum hujusmodi auxiliari et subvenire expetentes, de opibus quas nobis Deus ex suâ benignitate elargitus est, unum alvearium in Universitate Oxonii, quod Collegium Corporis Christi appellavimus, fundavimus, ereximus, et extruximus; in quo scholastici, veluti ingeniosæ apes, dies noctesque ceram ad Dei honorem et dulciflua mella conficiant ad suam et universorum Christianorum commoditatem: in quo alveario, Præsidentem, qui ceteris præsit, viginti scholares sive Socios, totidem discipulos, tres lectores, qui intus operentur, unusquisque suo officio et ordine, in omne ævum habitare constituimus et decernimus per præsentes; ac, præterea, sex sacelli ministros, quorum duo sint sacerdotes, duo clerici non sacerdotes, acoliti, aut saltem primă tonsură initiati, reliqui vero duo choristæ.'

breach of duty in his office, or becomes bankrupt, he may be tion of removed from office by the Visitor, after inquiry duly held on the President. petition of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat. The Vice-President, on the receipt of a requisition signed by not fewer than four Fellows, shall be bound to call such a meeting, giving not less than a fortnight's notice thereof. Provided that, before any such petition for the removal of a President is presented to the Visitor, the President shall first be invited to resign his office voluntarily, and that in the case of a President so resigning, all proceedings with respect to the petition shall come to an end.

The Fellows.

- 13. (a) There shall be three classes of Fellows; namely, Official, Classes of Extraordinary, and Ordinary Fellows.
- (b) Each Fellow shall be entitled, according to the class of Fellowship which he holds, to the emoluments herein-after specified.
- 14. The following Professors shall (subject to the subse-Professors. quent provisions of these Statutes) be, by virtue of their office and without the necessity of any new election, Official Fellows of the College, and shall be respectively entitled to the emoluments herein-after provided for them:—

The Professor of Latin: who shall receive from the College a stipend of 700l. per annum, until the bequest of the late Professor John Conington, for the endowment of his chair, is received, and shall then receive from the College such annual stipend as will, with the annual sum arising from that bequest, amount to 700l.

The Professor of Jurisprudence: who shall receive from the College a stipend, if he is resident, of 700l. per annum, and if not, of 300l. per annum.

The Professor of Comparative Philology: who shall receive from the College a stipend of 700l. per annum.

Whyte's Professor of Moral Philosophy: who shall receive from the College such a sum as will, together with any other emolument of this chair except fees, make a stipend of 700l. per annum.

The Professor (when appointed) of the Romance or Neo-Latin Languages and Literature: who shall receive from the College a stipend of 300l. per annum.

In addition to the stipends mentioned above, each of the said

Professors shall receive the emoluments of an Ordinary Fellowship.

15. (a) The provisions of clause 14 shall be subject to the conditions that the appointment to each of the said Professorships shall be vested in an Electoral Board to be constituted by a Statute or Statutes for the University, and that of each Board so constituted one member at least shall be a member of the College nominated by the Col and another shall be a person a permanent Elector by th

Convocation.

(b) The provision hereby maprudence shall be subject to t fessor shall not by any (unless assented to by the during any time exceeding the occasion of each election, ent for learning nominated as e subject to the approval of or the Professorship of Jurisrther condition that the Proregulating the Professorship be required to be usually, or nths in any year, resident in the University, nor hold his office for a longer term than five years. But the University may from time to time with the assent of the College, by Statute or Decree of Convocation, vary the term for which the Professorship is to be tenable, or may with the like assent determine that the Professor shall be usually resident in the University and hold his office for life. Any Professor elected for a term of years may be re-elected from time to time.

- 16. (a) Every Professor to whose Professorship a Fellowship is annexed shall be admitted a Fellow on his appointment to his Professorship, or on the establishment of the Fellowship annexed to his Professorship, as the case may be.
- (b) Every such Professor shall on resigning or otherwise vacating his Professorship vacate his Fellowship.
- 17. A Professor to whose chair a Fellowship is attached may be deprived of his Fellowship for the same causes and in the same manner as other Fellows; and the Bylaws and Regulations of the College may be enforced against him as against other Fellows.

If a Professor be so deprived, that part of his emoluments which consists in the stipend of an Ordinary Fellow shall sink into the corporate revenues of the College, but the annual sum constituting the residue of such emoluments shall continue to be payable to the Professor.

If a Professor be deprived of his Professorship by any authority constituted in that behalf by Statutes made for the University he shall ipso facto vacate his Fellowship.

- 18. (a) If, on the occurrence of any vacancy in the Professorship of the Romance or Neo-Latin Languages and Literature, it appears to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that it is expedient to suspend the appointment of a successor to the Professorship, and in the meantime to make use of the emoluments thereof for the temporary endowment of an Extraordinary Professorship in any other subject, that Professorship may, with the consent of the College, be suspended accordingly; and the emoluments thereof, during the time of any such suspension to which the College so consents, shall be paid by the College to the University, for the purpose of the endowment of the Extraordinary Professorship. It shall be in the power of the College, if it think fit, to elect any such Extraordinary Professor to be a Fellow of the College, upon the same footing in all respects as if he had been appointed to the suspended Professorship.
- (b) When the Professorship has been declared to be suspended under this clause, the period of suspension shall end when the person appointed to be Extraordinary Professor vacates his offices: unless the Hebdomadal Council, with the consent of the College and under the conditions herein-before stated, shall, within three months after the vacancy has occurred, declare that the Professorship shall be again suspended.

19. (a) The Tutors of the College shall be three in number.

Tutors.

- (b) The appointment of a Tutor shall be made by the President, subject to the approval of the College, and shall in the first instance be for a period of two years only, unless he has previously served the College as Assistant Tutor or Lecturer; in which case he may be in the first instance appointed for a period of ten years. At the end of the above-mentioned period of two years a Tutor may be reappointed by the College, and shall then hold his office for a period of ten years, at the expiration of which (or, if originally appointed for ten years, at the end of that time) he may be reappointed for a further period not exceeding ten years. No subsequent reappointment shall be for a longer period than five years; and a Tuter who has held office for thirty-two years shall not be eligible for reappointment.
- (c) During the first above-mentioned period of two years a Tenure of Tutor shall hold his office at the pleasure of the College. During Tutorship. any subsequent period a Tutor may be removed from office for inefficiency or other reasonable cause, by a resolution passed at a College meeting specially summoned, with notice of the business to be transacted thereat; but the Tutor so removed may within one month appeal to the Visitor, whose decision shall be final. Any Tutor accepting an office which is, in the opinion of the College, incompatible with the duties of his tutorship, shall vacate his tutorship.

Tutors
shall be Official Fellows.

(d) A Tutor shall be by virtue of his office an Official Fellow of the College, and shall receive, out of the revenues of the College, the sum of 2001. per annum as the emolument of his Fellowship, in addition to his stipend as Tutor.

Stipend of Tutor.

(e) The stipend of a T annum, payable out of further sums as may be herein-after mentioned. appointment, and may b out of the Tuition Fund; in addition to his emolar consist of the sum of 150l. per es of the College, and of such him out of the Tuition Fund be fixed at the time of his ently increased by the College never exceed 600l. per annum fellow.

Duties.

(f) The payments n tor by way of stipend shall be conditional on his giving m time to the educational work of the College, and not accepting or a dertaking, without the consent of the College, any office or educational work elsewhere which is in their judgment, incompatible with the full performance of his work for the College. If any Tutor is not required to give his whole time to the College, the stipend paid to him shall be subject to such reduction as the College may determine.

Pensions.

(g) Retiring pensions may be provided for Tutors and Assistant Tutors, not exceeding in each case the amounts specified in the following scale:—

After not	less than	25 yea	ars' servi	ce		400 l .

(h) A Tutor or Assistant Tutor having served less than twenty years shall not receive a pension unless his retirement is caused by ill-health.

Incapacity.

- (i) In the event of a Tutor or Assistant Tutor being incapacitated by ill-health before he has completed ten years' service, the College may, if satisfied that his circumstances are such as to require it, grant him, on such conditions and for such time as it may think fit, a retiring allowance to any amount not exceeding rool.
- (j) For the purposes of this clause, years of service as Assistant Tutor shall count as half the same number of years as full Tutor.

- 20. (a) There shall be not less than two, nor more than three Assistant Assistant Tutors.
- (b) The appointment of an Assistant Tutor shall be made by the President, subject to the approval of the College, regard being had to the educational needs of the College; and may be made for any period not exceeding seven years. At the expiration of this period an Assistant Tutor may be reappointed by the President for any further period not exceeding seven years, and so from time to time, subject as aforesaid to the approval of the College. During any such period an Assistant Tutor may be removed from office, for inefficiency or other reasonable cause, by a resolution passed at a College Meeting specially summoned, with notice of the business to be transacted thereat; but the Assistant Tutor so removed may within one month appeal to the Visitor, whose decision shall be final.
- (c) An Assistant Tutor shall be by virtue of his office an Official Fellow of the College, but shall not receive any emolument as such Official Fellow in addition to his stipend as Assistant Tutor. Provided that any Ordinary Fellow of the College becoming an Assistant Tutor shall not thereby vacate his Ordinary Fellowship, and no person appointed an Assistant Tutor who at the time of his appointment holds a Fellowship in another College shall, so long as he holds such a Fellowship, become an Official Fellow under this clause.
- (d) The stipend of an Assistant Tutor shall be 2001. per annum at the time of his first appointment, which shall be paid out of the revenues of the College. This stipend may be increased annually by a sum not exceeding 50l. per annum, to be paid, one half out of the Tuition Fund and one half out of the revenues of the College; but it shall never exceed 400l. per annum. After the expiration of the period of the first appointment it shall be lawful for the President, with the approval of the College, to fix the stipend of an Assistant Tutor for any subsequent period at his discretion, so, however, that it do not exceed 400l. per annum.
- 21. CHRIST CHURCH.

I.

WE, the University virtue of all and even contained in the Unido by this present Inhereunto annexed for Oxford.

Given under our of June in the Eight Hund Commissioners, under and by s in this behalf enabling us ord and Cambridge Act, 1877, er our Seal make the Statutes or House of Christ Church in this Sixteenth day ord One Thousand one.

STATUTES OF CHRIST CHURCH, OXFORD.

Preamble.

In the year 1525 Cardinal Wolsey obtained by letters patent permission to found a College on a magnificent scale; and the first stone of Cardinal College was laid on the 17th day of July, 1525. All the revenues of this Foundation fell to King Henry the Eighth on Wolsey's attainder in 1529.

A second Foundation under the name of King Henry the Eighth's College lasted only from 1532 to 1545, when the College was suppressed and its possessions again reverted to the King.

He then established the Collegiate Foundation, styled 'Ecclesia Christi Cathedralis Oxon: ex fundatione Regis Henrici Octavi,' in November, 1546.

This Foundation, which continued without material alteration for more than three hundred years, up to 1858, consisted of a Dean, 8 Canons, 100 Students (to which number one was added in 1664), 8 Chaplains, an Organist, 8 Lay Clerks, 8 Choristers, 24 Almsmen.

Christ Church received no Statutes, as the King died within a few weeks after its foundation without having signed any Statutes for the House. The House consists of the Dean, Canons, Students and Scholars, together with the Chaplains, Schoolmaster, Organist, Lay Clerks, Choristers, and others, who are attached more particularly to the service of the Cathedral Church.

The Canonries, which are now six in number, are annexed respectively to the Regius Professorships of Divinity, Hebrew, Pastoral Theology, and Ecclesiastical History, the Lady Margaret's Professorship of Divinity, and the Archdeaconry of Oxford.

The emoluments of the Dean as such, and of the Canons as such and as Professors of the University, are charged upon the revenues of the House.

I.—The Governing Body: Its Constitution and General Powers.

The Government of the Foundation, and the disposal and management of its Possessions and Revenues, including all Estates formerly vested in the Dean and Chapter, or in the Dean and Canons, or in the Dean and certain of the Canons, upon any trust for purposes connected with the House, shall be vested in the Dean, Canons, Students (except as herein-after provided), and such other persons as under the provisions of these Statutes may be made members of the Governing Body; and all Powers and Authorities whatsoever formerly exercised by the Dean and Canons alone, or by the Dean and Canons conjointly with any other person or persons within the House, shall be exercised by the Dean, Canons, and the said Students and the other persons above mentioned, as the Governing Body of the House; except only the powers and authorities, which, by the parts hereby left unrepealed and still in force of the Ordinance contained in the Schedule to the 'Christ Church, Oxford, Act, 1867,' are expressly reserved to the Dean and Canons; and the Dean and Canons shall not, on their part, otherwise than as individual members of the Governing Body, be entitled to control or interfere with the exercise of the powers hereby assigned to the Governing Body.

Students of the House elected before the day on which the Commissioners' Ordinance of the Ninth day of January, 1858, was approved by Her Majesty in Council shall, if resident in the University, or holding any office within the House, be entitled to act as members of the Governing Body. Those only shall for this purpose be considered resident in the University who shall, at the time when the privilege of Residence is claimed or exercised, be qualified as Residents to vote in the Congregation of the University under the Act 17th and 18th Victoria, chapter 8t.

The House shall have power to elect as a member of the Governing Body any Professor endowed wholly or in part from the funds of the House, or any person who is serving the House in the capacity of Treasurer or Steward. Such persons, if elected to the Governing Body, shall be Students of the House, and shall take rank as to Senionia. The House of the House, and shall take rank as to Senionia. The House of the House, and shall not be subject to the provision at the same of the Governing Body.

be sufficient to pass all interest in real and personal Estate, the property of the House, or held in Trust as aforesaid, the disposal and management whereof is hereby vested in the Governing Body.

III .- Use of the Cathedral.

The Governing Body shall have power to arrange Services for the benefit of Undergraduate members of the House, as well as for College servants, and to determine the time at which such Services shall be celebrated; provided always, that there be no interference with the ordinary Cathedral Service, and further that, in case the Dean and Canons should concur in adopting such Collegiate Service as the Cathedral Service also, the right of preaching Sermons or of appointing preachers (if there should be Sermons) shall remain with the Dean and Canons.

IV.-Right to present to Livings.

The right to present to vacant Benefices in the gift of the House, or held in Trust for any members of the House as such shall belong in the first instance to the Governing Body, but may be exercised by them only in favour of persons who shall be either Students or Chaplains of the House. If the Governing Body shall not within three calendar months after the avoidance of any Benefice have presented thereto a Student or Chaplain of the House, the right of Presentation shall pass to the Dean and Canons, who may rcise it in favour of any person whom they may think fit; vided nevertheless, that, so soon as a certificate shall have been en to the Dean in the manner provided by any Bylaw of the use in force for the time being, that there is no intention on the t of the Governing Body to present any Student or Chaplain the House, the Dean and Canons may act on such a certificate ording to the powers given them, although the three calendar nths be not expired.

V.—The Cathedral Fabric Fund.

The Governing Body shall, once at least in every ten years, cause surveyor to report to them in writing what in his opinion will the average annual expenditure required during the ensuing years for the repairs and proper sustentation of the Cathedral lits appurtenances, including the Chapter House. And the verning Body shall thereupon order that a sum sufficient, with balance then remaining from previous years, to make up the ount of such estimate shall be set apart in every year of such ennial period, or until a new estimate shall have been laid ore them in the same manner. The annual sums so set apart ll form a separate Fund, which shall be called 'The Cathedral pric Fund,' and shall be applied to such repairs as aforesaid, ler the exclusive control of the Dean and Chapter.

VI.-General Repairs Fund.

The Governing Body shall in like manner, and upon like denial and other reports and estimates, from time to time order t a sum, to be ascertained in the manner herein-before provided to the Cathedral Fabric Fund, shall be set apart in every year as parate Fund to be applied to the repairs and proper sustentation he buildings of the House other than those provided for by the hedral Fabric Fund.

VII.—Proceeds of Suppressed Canonry.

Dut of the sum of 17,000l. directed by the Ordinance contained the Schedule to the 'Christ Church, Oxford, Act, 1867,' to be apart in every year as a Chapter Fund, the portion which, by twenty-ninth clause of the same Ordinance, is placed at the cosal of the Governing Body (as having been devoted to the port of the seventh Canonry by the same Ordinance directed to be filled up), shall be retained by the Governing Body, and applied by them as part of the General Revenues of the Hose, and the residue of the said sum (amounting to r5.500l) shall be the Chapter Fund.

VIII.-Regius Professor of Greek.

The Governing Body shall cause a yearly sum of 500% to be set apart and paid out of the revenues of the House to the Region

The Studentship, so annexed to the office of the said Professor, shall not be tenable with any Headship, Fellowship, or Office of emolument in any other College; and if, and so long as any such Professor shall hold and retain any Headship, Fellowship, or office of emolument in any other College, he shall not be entitled to any augmentation of his stipend out of the revenues of the House beyond the sum of 5001. per annum.

IX.-Application of Revenues.

The several sums herein-before directed to be set apart for the Cathedral Fabric Fund, the General Repairs Fund, the Chapter Fund, and the sum of 500l. payable to the Regius Professor of Greek, shall be considered as charges on the general revenues of the House, prior to the emoluments of the Studentships.

X .- Tuition Fund and Tuition.

- For payment of the salaries of Tutors and Lecturers, and for the defraying of other expenses connected with the instruction of the Scholars and other Undergraduate members of the House, there shall be a fund, to be called 'The Tuition Fund,' into which shall be paid:
- (a) The tuition fees of the Undergraduate members of the House.

(b) A contribution from the general revenues of the House, at the rate of not more than 5l. per annum for each Undergraduate member of the House receiving Tuition.

The Tuition Fund shall be apportioned between the Tutors and Lecturers, and applied to the payment of such other expenses as aforesaid, by and under the authority of the Electoral Board hereinafter constituted.

2. The Governing Body shall provide courses of instruction for the Undergraduate members of the House during at least twentyfour weeks in the Academical year, exclusive of the time devoted to any College Examinations.

XI.-Pension Fund.

- 1. For the formation of a Pension Fund the Governing Body may from time to time set apart such a yearly sum as the state of their revenues and the statutory charges upon them may permit, not exceeding 1,000l. in any one year, and may add to the Pension Fund a sum deducted from the Tuition Fund, provided such deduction do not exceed 10l. per cent. per annum, and may also add the whole or part of any balance of the Tuition Fund unexpended in any year.
- 2. The Fund so formed shall be from time to time invested and accumulated in any securities in which Trust Funds may legally be invested, and the income of the Fund, including the payments from the Tuition Fund and from the corporate revenue, shall be applied in payment of pensions as claims thereto arise: Provided, nevertheless, that no pension shall be granted which the income of the said Fund shall not in the judgment of the Governing Body be sufficient to satisfy.
- 3. Every pensioner shall be entitled to payment of his pension out of the said Fund in priority to all others whose pensions shall have been subsequently granted; and no pensions shall be payable except out of this Fund.
- 4. When the capital of the Pension Fund has been raised to such an amount as in the judgment of the Visitor shall be sufficient, the payments from the Tuition Fund and from the corporate revenues shall be discontinued, beyond so much thereof as may be required for payment of current pensions.

XII.—Disposal of Revenue.

1. The application of the revenues of the House under the provisions and to the purposes of these Statutes shall be subject to any Statute or Statutes made for the University under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for enabling or requiring the Colleges to make contributions out of their revenues to University purposes, and to the payment of the charges imposed thereby.

3. If at any time it shall appear to the Visitor that the revenues of the House have become more than sufficient to provide for its expenditure, the Visitor may, if he think fit, make an order directing that any part of the surplus revenue shall be set apart and applied to purposes relative either to the House or to the University, according to a scheme submitted or to be submitted to him by the House and approved by him. After an order so made by the Visitor, any sums thereby directed to be set apart shall be applied in conformity with a scheme submitted to and approved by the Visitor as aforesaid, and under an order of the Visitor confirming the same, and not otherwise.

4. The expenditure of the House shall, in the foregoing clause. be deemed to include as well the payment of charges for University purposes imposed by Statutes made for the University as aforesaid. as the application of revenue to the purposes of these Statutes, reasonable and customary expenditure (not inconsistent with them) for College purposes, extraordinary expenditure (when required) on estates, and any reasonable donations for educational or charitable objects or connected with the duties of the House as a holder of property.

- 5. Before any scheme is confirmed by the Visitor, the Governing Body shall communicate it to the Vice-Chancellor for the information of the Hebdomadal Council of the University; and the Visitor shall consider any representations which the Hebdomadal Council may judge it expedient for the interests of the University to make with reference to such scheme.
- 6. An order made by the Visitor confirming a Scheme submitted to him by the House shall continue in force until a new scheme varying it or in substitution for it shall have been submitted and confirmed in like manner.
- 7. The Governing Body of the House or any three members thereof may at any time make a representation to the Visitor requesting him to exercise, if he think fit, the powers of this Statute. But this provision shall not be deemed to affect the Visitor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.
- 8. Subject to the right of the Visitor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenues of the House shall from time to time be applied by the Governing Body at their discretion to any purposes relative to the House and not inconsistent with these Statutes, or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.
- 9. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship, or of any Studentship or Scholarship in the House; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Visitor or under any express power herein-before contained) to the number of Studentships or of Scholarships, the payments to the Tuition Fund or to an Exhibition Fund, or the provision for a Pension Fund, which are respectively authorised by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the House from making payments under the preceding clause out of its surplus revenue for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

XIII.—Powers of Governing Body as to College Officers and Bylaws.

1. The Governing Body may from time to time regulate as they shall think fit the duties and emoluments of the officers of the House (not being officers under the control of the Dean and Canons), and the mode of their appointment or election, and may institute such new offices as they shall deem necessary for the better management of the property, revenue, and affairs of the House, and for the discipline of its members, and may assign to such new offices such reasonable stipends as the Governing Body shall think proper: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Visiter, upon the petition of any member of the Governing Body, to disallow any such regulation or assignment if he shall think fit.

Number of Open Scholarships.

1. There shall be an election to five Open Scholarships in every and Tenure year; they shall be tenable for two years from the day of election. if the person elected be already a member of the University, if otherwise, from the Midsummer day next following, and (at the expiration of such two years) shall then determine, unless the Governing Body have by Resolution declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar, in which case the Scholar's tenure shall be renewed for a further term of two years. At the end of the latter term the Governing Body may extend the tenure of any such Scholarship for one year longer if for special reasons, they deem it advisable so to do: Providel always, that nothing in this clause shall prevent the exercise at any time, for any sufficient cause, of the power of deprivation conferred by the Statute herein-after numbered XXVI, or of the power of inflicting any fines or penalties less than deprivation under any Bylaw of the House for the time being in force.

Day of elcction and subjects of examination.

2. The election to Open Scholarships shall be held on a statel day or stated days in each year to be appointed by the Governing Body (subject to the provision for postponement herein-after contained); and notice of such intended election, and of the conditions of election, shall be given by the Dean, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election. The Candidates shall be examined in such subjects and manner as the Governing Body shall determine, but so that in at least one election to an Open Scholarship in every year the subject of examination shall be Mathematics, and in another Natural Science; and that Candidate shall be elected who, after such examination, shall appear to the electors to be of the greatest merit and most fit to be a Scholar of the House.

- 3. No person shall be admissible as a Candidate for any Open Age. Scholarship who shall have exceeded the age of nineteen years on the day of election, or who shall not have produced testimonials of his moral character satisfactory to the Dean.
- 4. Whenever there shall be no duly qualified Candidate for a Postponevacant Open Scholarship whom the electors shall judge to be of ment. sufficient merit for election, and whenever an Open Scholarship shall fall vacant, and there shall not be time to give the notice herein-before directed before the day of election, the election shall be postponed to some other day, to be fixed by the Governing Body, not later than the next ensuing stated day of election to Open Scholarships; and every such postponed election shall be held and conducted in the same manner, and after the same previous notice, as if there had been no postponement.

5. One of the Open Scholarships shall be the Vernon Scholar-Vernon 5. One of the Open Scholarships shall be the vernon Scholarship, after the Scholarship. On each vacancy occurring in this Scholarship, after the ship. approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, the same shall be filled up by an election held in the same manner as in the case of other Open Scholarships vacant within the House; save that the Candidates shall be examined in Natural Science, and that Candidate shall be chosen who after such examination shall appear to the Examiners to be of the greatest merit. No Candidate for the Vernon Scholarship shall be entitled to be admitted to a Scholarship if, in the judgment of the electors, he shall not be in all respects fit to be a Scholar of the House.

6. There shall also be elected, after examination, two Scholars in every year from Undergraduate members of the House who have been in residence for at least three Terms, and who shall have the permission of the Dean to compete.

These Scholarships shall be tenable till the end of the sixteenth Term from Matriculation (with power to extend for one year as above).

7. The emoluments of every Scholarship shall be 801. a year, Emoluments. inclusive of all allowances.

8. Any Candidate for a Scholarship shall be allowed, when he enters his name for the examination, to inform the Dean that he desires only the rights and privileges of a Scholar without the emoluments; and any such Candidate, if he is successful in the competition, shall enjoy those rights and privileges only without emoluments, and shall be regarded as an honorary Scholar-the whole number of vacancies advertised being filled up, if suitable Candidates present thems-1on such honorary Scholar had been elected.

India Civil Service shall be eligible to any of the Scholarships mentioned above, and any Scholar who shall become a selected Candidate shall thereby vacate his Scholarship. But the Governing Body may, if they think fit, and on such conditions as they may determine, award from time to time to any selected Candidate a Scholarship tenable during residence with emoluments not exceeding 50l. a year; the amount of such emoluments within that limit to be determined by the Governing Body on the report of the Dean. Such Scholarships shall never exceed in number six at any one time.

A Scholar of the House, who by becoming a selected Candidate vacates his Scholarship, shall have a preferential claim to an India Civil Service Scholarship.

XXIII.—College Exhibitions.

The Exhibitions of the Foundations of Archbishop Boulter for Servitors, Mr. Pauncefort, Dr. Gardiner, Bishop Frampton, Dr. Cotton, and Mrs. Paul, shall be applied to the support of College Exhibitioners, who shall be elected after examination in such subjects and such manner as the Governing Body shall determine. Notice of each election shall be given in the same manner as that prescribed above for the election of Open Scholars, and the Exhibitioners shall be elected at first for two years only, the tenure of these Exhibitions being renewable in the same manner as that allowed for Scholarships, and on the same terms. No person shall be appointed to one of these Exhibitions, unless he shall give sufficient proof to the Dean of his need of such assistance to enable him to obtain the benefit of a University education.

XXIV.-Exhibitions for Commoners.

The Governing Body shall maintain the Exhibitions already created, and may create further Exhibitions for Commoners of the House, out of the moneys left for that purpose by Bishop Fell, Archbishop Boulter, and Mrs. Bostock, when those moneys shall have ceased to be required for the purpose of establishing Scholarships.

XXV.—Exhibition Fund.

- 1. The Governing Body may, if they think fit, set apart out of Corporate Revenue a sum not exceeding in any year 400l. to be applied in granting assistance, in the way of Exhibitions or otherwise, to members of the House, whether Scholars or Commoners, who are in need of assistance to support them at the University.
- 2. But no such assistance out of the Fund formed under this clause shall be given to any Scholar or Exhibitioner who shall not already be resident, nor shall any prospect of such assistance be announced when notice is given of any election to a vacant Open Scholarship.

XXVI.—Discipline and Causes of Deprivation of Scholars and Exhibitioners.

- 1. Any Scholar or Exhibitioner who shall marry, or be elected to a Studentship, or to a place on the foundation of any other Collegiate Body within the University, shall thereby vacate his Scholarship or Exhibition.
- 2. Any Scholar or Exhibitioner may be deprived of his Scholarship or Exhibition by the Governing Body for any misconduct which, in the judgment of the Governing Body, or the major part of those present and voting at any Stated Meeting, shall merit deprivation.
- 3. Every Scholar or Exhibitioner, and every member of the House under the Degree of Master of Arts, shall be required to conform to such general regulations as to residence, discipline, and (subject to the provisions of the Universities Tests Act, 1871) attendance on Divine Worship as may be made from time to time by the Governing Body.

XXVII.-Holford Exhibitions.

The two consolidated Holford Exhibitions shall respectively be tenable for five years from the day of election inclusive, and no longer. It shall be lawful for the Governing Body, with the consent of the Governing Body of the Charterhouse School, to increase the number of Exhibitions, if there shall be sufficient funds for that purpose, but so that the emoluments of each Exhibition shall not fall short of 60*l*, per annum.

XXVIII.-Bishop Wood's Estate.

No clause or provision herein contained shall extend to or include the estate held under the Will of Bishop Wood for the benefit of the Senior Masters of the House, being Students, or any payments or allowances which may be made thereout pursuant to the said Will, but so that only Official Students, including Dr. Lee's Readers, and the Treasurer and the Steward (if members of the Governing Body), shall be deemed Students of the House within the meaning of the said Will.

XXIX.—Certain Distinctions abolished.

There shall be no distinctions in respect of Academical dress, designation, College charges, or College payments, among Undergraduate members of the House, not being Scholars or Exhibitioners within the House.

FOR CHRIST CHURCH.

XXX.-The Visitor.

- 1. The Visitor, by Commissary or Commissaries duly appointed, once in ten years (or oftener, if and whenever the Visitor shall deem it expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being to do so), without any request or application by the House or any of its members, may visit the House, and exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of general Visitor of a College, any Statute or usage of the House to the contrary notwithstanding. The Visitor shall continue to have such power of depriving any member of the House as before the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council may have been legally vested in the Visitor, notwithstanding anything in these Statutes contained.
- 2. If at any time it shall be made to appear, to the satisfaction of the Visitor, that, owing to any cause, the revenues of the House are, or without the exercise of the power hereby conferred would be likely to become, insufficient to meet the charges created by these Statutes and to defray the rest of its necessary or ordinary expenditure, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, on a petition in writing presented by order of the Governing Body at a Stated Meeting, to direct that any vacant Studentship or Scholarship, shall, either permanently or during any limited period, be kept vacant, or that the charges created by these Statutes shall be rateably diminished, either permanently or for a limited period: Provided, that no such diminution shall be made in the charges imposed by Statutes VIII. and XVII., unless thirty days' notice thereof shall have been previously given to the Vice-Chancellor of the University.
- 3. The Governing Body shall, as often as they may be required to do so, answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed. The Dean and Chapter shall in like manner, and for the like purpose, be bound to answer any such inquiry as to themselves, the exercise of their Reserved Powers, and the persons and things under their control.
- 4. It shall be lawful for the Dean, or for any Canon or Student, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act, decision, or sentence of the Governing Body, and for any Chaplain who may deem himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Dean or of the Dean and Chapter, and for any Scholar or Exhibitioner who may have been deprived of his Scholarship or Exhibition, to appeal against such act or decision or sentence to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to adjudicate upon such appeal, and to disallow or annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence, as the Visitor shall deem just.

5. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, on the complaint of the Dean or of any member of the Governing Body, to disallow and e judgment of the Visitor be annul any Bylaw whiel he House in force for the time

XXXI. Provisions relative to the University.

- 1. If at any time it appear to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that any provisions of these Statutes, or of any other Statutes of the House in force for the time being, respecting the accounts of the House, or the audit or publication thereof, or the exercise of the borrowing powers of the House, or any other provision of such Statutes, by the non-observance of which any interest of the University is liable to be prejudicially affected, is not duly observed, the Hebdomadal Council may submit a representation to the Visitor, and the Visitor shall, upon receiving such representation, inquire into the matter, and, after considering any representation made by the House, make such order therein as he shall deem just for enforcing the due observance of the said Statutes in the matter to which the representation shall relate.
- 2. The Hebdomadal Council, or any Board of a Faculty in the University, may in like manner make a representation to the Visitor, if it shall appear that the provisions of these Statutes respecting the subjects of examinations for Studentships are not duly observed by the House.
- 3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such

Board of a Faculty (as the case may be) shall communicate the matter of the proposed representation to the Dean for the information of the House, and when a representation is made shall forthwith send him a copy of it.

XXXII.-Power to Alter or Repeal.

It shall be lawful for the Governing Body of the House, at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, by Statute from time to time to alter any clause or provision herein-before contained, or to add new clauses or provisions thereto, subject to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

XXXIII.-Repeal of Crdinance.

The existing Ordinance contained in the Schedule to the 'Christ Church, Oxford, Act, 1867,' except so much and such parts thereof as are set forth in the first Schedule to these Statutes annexed, is hereby repealed; but this repeal shall not affect any interest created under the said Ordinance, or preserved by the said Ordinance, or the conditions of tenure of an emolument held by virtue of such an interest, or the application of any moneys set apart for the 'Cathedral Fabric Fund' under the said Ordinance, and shall not revive any enactment, provision, or requirement by the said Ordinance annulled.

XXXIV.—Temporary Provisions.

- 1. Studentships of the old Foundation, and Senior Studentships under the Ordinances of 1858 and 1867, when they become vacant, are not to be filled up.
- 2. The House shall not be required to make any election to Non-official Studentships before the year 1885.
- 3. The Governing Body may, if they think fit, at any time transfer any Senior Student on the present Foundation who is now or shall hereafter be appointed a Tutor or Lecturer of the House, with his own consent signified in writing, to an Official Studentship on the following terms: Every such Student, who is a Tutor or Lecturer of the House at the time when he is so transferred, shall be reckoned to have been an Official Student for the purposes relating to re-appointment, and marriage, during such time as he has actually been serving the House as Tutor or Lecturer; in applying the clauses of Statute XVI. relating to pensions he shall be entitled to count the whole period during which he has served the Home as Tutor or Lecturer after the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council and one half of his time of service previous to such approval.

4. Students who are so transferred shall take rank in order of their seniority on the present list of Senior Students; and no Student by being transferred to an Official Studentship shall lose seniority as against.

- 7. These Statutes shall apply to any person who, at the time when they come into operation, holds an emolument within the House, subject to the condition that his tenure of it shall from and after the approval of new Statutes, to be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners in relation to it, be subject to the previsions of such new Statutes. Every such person shall thenceforth hold the said emolument on the same tenure and subject to the same conditions in all respects as if he had been elected or appointed to it under these Statutes; and, if the emolument be a Studentship, he shall be entitled to hold it during the residue of the time and on the terms for and on which he would have been entitled to hold it if these Statutes had been in force at the time of his election or appointment, and he had then been elected to a Non-official Studentship tenable under them.
- 8. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding clause, these Statutes shall not be construed to diminish or affect the interest of any member of the House elected before the approval thereof by Her Majesty in Council; but no existing member of the House, who shall not place himself under these Statutes, shall be entitled by virtue of anything herein contained to receive larger emoluments than he would have been entitled to receive if these Statutes had not been made, except that if a member of the Governing Body he shall be included in reckoning the Table allowance mentioned in Statute XVI. 27: any resident Student elected before the ninth day of January 1858 shall likewise be so included.

The existing Lee's Readers shall continue to hold their offices on the same terms as if these Statutes had not been made, subject to any Statute or Statutes made in manner provided by clause 5 of Statute XVII. of these Statutes, enabling them to place themselves under such new Statute or Statutes.

Any pension, or allowance in the nature of a pension, to which the existing Treasurer may become entitled under the terms of the agreement with the Governing Body on which he accepted the office in May, 1875, or under the resolutions passed by the Governing Body on the 18th May, 1875 and on the 19th June, 1880, shall be paid out of the General Revenues of the House, and not out of the Pension Fund for which provision is made in Statute XI.

These Statutes shall not be deemed to take away the power given to the Governing Body by Clauses XV. and XXIX. of the Ordinance contained in the Schedule to the 'Christ Church, Oxford, Act, 1867,' to increase the emoluments of any Student on the old Foundation, or Senior Student, who shall be a College Officer, Tutor, Reader, or Lecturer, of the House, to the amount therein mentioned.

These Statutes shall be construed to speak and take effect as if framed immediately before the said approval.

- 9. The emoluments of the Exhibitions of the Foundations of Bishop Fell, of Archbishop Boulter for Commoners, and of Mrs. Bostock, may be applied towards the maintenance of the Scholarships so long as it may be necessary.
- 10. The prohibition of distinctions in respect of dress, precedence, payments, and charge, shall not apply to members of the House who shall before the 24th of March, 1866 have been admitted to residence.
- 11. Nothing contained in these Statutes shall affect the right of the present Regius Professors of Divinity and Hebrew to the yearly payments of 40l. heretofore enjoyed by them.
- 12. The Governing Body shall have power to strike out of these Statutes any of these Temporary Provisions, so soon as there shall exist no persons to whom they apply.

These Statutes are made wholly for Christ Church within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, Section 30.

II.

Wr, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the Cathedral or House of Christ Church in Oxford, concerning Westminster Scholarships within the said Cathedral or House.

Given under our Common Seal this Seventeenth Day of August in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty One.

A STATUTE FOR THE CATHEDRAL OR HOUSE OF CHRIST CHURCH IN OXFORD CONCERNING WESTMINSTER SCHOLARSHIPS WITHIN THE HOUSE.

Number.

1. Three Scholarships within the House (except as herein-after provided) shall be filled up at Warminster School on the Tuesday in Rogation Week in a property or on such other day as the Electors shall from time boys who shall have been and shall have been up twenty-fifth day of M been presented as car be Head Master of the said School.

Value.

2. These Scholarships and shall be of the value to pounds a year each. These sums shall be charged upon the corporate revenues of the House except so far as they may be defrayed from Trust Funds at the time available for the purpose.

Tenure.

3. These Scholarships shall be tenable for two years from the twenty-fifth day of July next following the day of election, and shall then determine, unless the Governing Body of the House shall by resolution have declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar, in which case the Scholar's tenure shall be renewed for a further term of three years. Provided always, that nothing in this clause shall prevent the exercise at any time for sufficient cause of the power given by the Statutes of the House in force for the time being to the Governing Body of the House to deprive a Scholar of his Scholarship for any misconduct which in their judgment shall merit deprivation, subject to such appeal to the Visitor as is in the same Statutes provided, nor of that of inflicting any fines or penaltics less than deprivation under any Bylaw of the House for the time being in force.

Election.

4. The Electors shall be those persons who under the Statutes of the Governing Body of Westminster School are entitled to elect to Junior Studentships on the present Foundation. The candidates shall be examined in such manner as the said Governing Body of Westminster School may from time to time appoint, and those candidates shall be elected whom after such examination the Electors shall deem to be of the greatest merit, and who shall

TRINITY COLLEGE.

I.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statutes hereunto annexed for Trinity College, in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty one. L. S.

STATUTES OF TRINITY COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

Sir Thomas Pope, Knight, in pursuance of Letters Patent granted by King Philip and Queen Mary, founded the House and College commonly called Trinity College within the University of Oxford in the house and within the precinct of the College of the Holy Trinity formerly existing in the University and called Durham College, which was founded by Richard de Hoghton, Prior, and the Monks of the Cathedral Convent of Durham.

According to the Statutes given by Sir Thomas Pope the College was founded 'ad gloriam et honorem Altissimi Conditoris nostri necnon ad proventum et publicam patriæ meæ utilitatem, orthodoxæ fidei religionisque Christianæ incrementum, et ad perpetuam pauperum scholarium in Academia degentium sustentationem.'

I.—The President.

1. The President shall be elected by an absolute majority of the Election. actual Fellows present and voting at a meeting held for such election. Notice of the day and hour of such meeting, and of the object thereof, shall, at least twenty-eight clear days before the time fixed for the same, be sent to every actual Fellow at his last known place of residence by the person summoning the meeting.

- 2. When the office of President shall become vacant, the Vice-President or, if he be absent, the Senior Fellow in residence shall as soon as may be summon all the actual Fellows to a meeting for the election of a new President, to be held on a day within the period within which the election is to take place. The election shall take place within two calendar months from the occurrence of the vacancy, or, if the vacancy shall have occurred between the 10th day of June and the toth day of September, then within eight weeks from the y of October.
- 3. At such meeting election, shall make tl.

arning, and education." h election shall continue until en ascertained as between any ection. In case of the whole it being equally divided between two persons, the vote of the Junior Fellow shall be withdrawn.

Any such meeting may be adjourned from time to time within the period provided for the election.

4. The person elected shall be presented, as soon as may be, to the Visitor by two Fellows of the College bearing a letter under the College Scal announcing the result of the election.

5. If the Fellows shall not have elected a President within the period herein-before provided for such election, the appointment of a President shall pass to the Visitor, who shall appoint the person best qualified in his judgment to be President of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education.

6. The person elected to the office of President, or appointed to the said office by the Visitor, as the case may be, shall forthwith be admitted President by the Vice-President, or some other Fellow acting instead of the Vice-President, and in the presence of at least three Fellows then being within the University; and shall at the

8. Any application by the President for such dispensation from Proresidence as aforesaid shall be notified by him beforehand to the President. Senior Fellow, and upon any such dispensation being granted for any period not less than two months, and also if and whenever it shall appear to the Visitor, upon a representation made to him by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the Fellows present at a meeting of the actual Fellows called for that purpose by the Vice-President, that the President is temporarily incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor shall appoint such person being or having been a Fellow of the College, as shall be nominated to him for the purpose, to be Pro-President, to perform the duties of President, subject as herein provided, for such period not exceeding one year as the Visitor shall judge necessary; and such Pro-President shall have power to perform the said duties, subject as aforesaid, for such period, and shall, in respect of the time during which he shall perform the said duties by virtue of such appointment, be entitled to receive such part not exceeding one-third of the President's pecuniary emoluments as the Visitor shall determine, and the remaining part thereof only shall be received by the President.

The nomination of a person to be Pro-President shall be made by a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting of the actual Fellows called for that purpose by the Vice-President: Provided that when such a representation is made as aforesaid the nomination may be made at the same meeting as the representation.

9. If at any time the President shall become permanently in-Retirement capable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor may, on and pension. the petition of the President presented with the consent of a majority of the actual Fellows present at a meeting of the College summoned for that purpose, direct that the President shall be at liberty to retire from his office with such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Visitor shall deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. If no such petition shall have been presented by the President, the Visitor may, if he think fit, on petition signed by not less than two-thirds of the Fellows present at a meeting of the actual Fellows called for that purpose, and after inquiry held by him, declare that the President has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, and may direct that the office of President shall be deemed to be vacant at the expiration of a time to be fixed by the order, and the election of a new President shall forthwith be proceeded with pursuant to these Statutes. The Visitor shall by the same order assign to the President on his ceasing to hold office such a pension, not exceeding 5001. per annum, as the Visitor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President, et,

If the President shall be 5 by of gross misconduct in his office or of any grave offence unfitting him to remain President, or shall become bankrupt, he may be deprived of his office by the Visitor after due inquiry held upon the petition of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat.

The Vice-President, on receiving a requisition signed by not fewer than three actual Fellows, shall be bound to call such meeting, giving not less than a fortnight's notice thereof.

Emolument.

- 12. The emoluments of the President shall be the yearly sum of 1,200l. paid to him out of the Corporate Revenues of the College. He shall also have the use rent free of the President's present lodgings with the appurtenances, or of such other lodgings as may hereafter be assigned to him by the College; all rates, taxes, and necessary repairs being defrayed by the College.
- 13. The President may hold a Professorship or other University Office; but in that case (unless the University Office be that of Vice-Chancellor) the payment to him out of the Corporate Revenues of the College shall not exceed the sum which will make his whole emoluments (including those of the Professorship or other office) 1.600l. a year.

Duties.

- 14. Subject as herein provided, the duties of the President shall be as follows:—
- (a) To have the custody of the muniments and of the common Seal of the College, and of the register and admission book, and all other books heretofore accustomed to be kept by the President, and to make therein all such entries and records as have heretofore been customarily made or shall be required by the Statutes or Bylaws of the College in force for the time being.

- (b) To superintend the property of the College.
- (c) To see that the Statutes and Regulations of the College are duly observed, and generally to superintend the education, discipline, and administration thereof.
- (d) To take such part in the educational work of the College, and to perform such part of the duties of any College office as the College shall, with his consent, from time to time determine.

The President shall in the performance of his duties be subject to the Statutes and Bylaws of the College in force for the time being.

II.—The Fellows.

1. Subject to the provisions herein-after contained, the number Number. of Fellowships shall be such, not being less than ten nor greater than twelve, as the President and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

Provided that the President and Fellows shall not be bound to fill up more than one vacant Fellowship in each year, unless they shall think fit to do so: and they shall have power to postpone the election to any vacant Fellowships, exceeding one, in any year, for any period not exceeding a year, and so from time to time.

Provided also, that if upon any examination having been held, as herein-after provided, for the purpose of electing a Fellow, no candidate shall, in the opinion of the electors, have shown sufficient merit for election, the College may suspend the election for the purpose of which such examination was held for any period not exceeding twelve calendar months, and the College shall in such case publish a fresh notice of such election and hold a fresh examination for the purpose thereof.

2. Of the twelve Fellowships so many, not exceeding seven at Official Felany one time, as the President and Fellows shall from time to time lowships. judge to be necessary, may be held by persons residing and serving the College in any one or more of the offices of Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar during the period of such residence and service under the provisions as to such offices herein-after contained. Not more than one person at any one time shall hold an official Fellowship as Bursar. Fellowships held on this tenure are herein-after called Official Fellowships.

Tenure.

- Subject to the above provision and to the provisions hereinafter contained, every Fellowship shall be tenable for a term of seven years from the day of election and no longer.
- (a) Provided that in the computation of such term of seven years any time may be excluded, not exceeding two years, during which a Fellow has since his election been resident in the University and employed by the College in its educational work upon the terms of having his Fellowship so extended; but so that there term of seven years, and such re-election may, under the same conditions, be repeated from time to time:

(c) Provided also, that, if any Fellow shall be appointed by the University to a Readership or Lectureship within or outside the University, and shall hold such appointment at the time when he would, but for this provision, have vacated his Fellowship, the College may, if it think fit, continue such Fellow in his Fellowship for a further period of five years, or for any less period, and such continuation may on the same condition be repeated from time to time.

Provided, nevertheless, that there shall not be in the College at any one time more than two Fellows re-elected, or continued in their Fellowships under sub-sections (b) and (c) of this clause, or either of them, and that nothing in this clause shall override the provisions of Clauses 15 and 21 respecting the vacation of Fellowships.

Elections to Nonofficial Fellowships.

4. Elections to Non-official Fellowships shall be made (except as herein-after provided by Clauses 11 and 13) after a previous examination of the candidates in subjects connected with the studies of the University, provided that the system of examinations shall be such as to render Fellowships accessible from time to time to excellence, as the President and Fellows may deem expedient, in every branch of knowledge recognised in the Schools of the University.

The President and Fellows shall elect that candidate who, after such examination, shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education.

5. Notice of every such intended election, of the number of Notice of vacancies to be filled, and of the conditions of election, shall be given by the President in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election. The election shall be held on such days as the President and Fellows shall from time to time appoint.

- 6. Subject to the provisions of Clauses 11 and 13, no person Qualificashall be eligible upon examination to a Non-official Fellowship, tion for who shall not have passed all the examinations required by the Official Fel-University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or who shall be lowships. married, or who shall be in the possession or enjoyment of any property, pension, benefice, or office which if acquired after election would disqualify him for continuing a Fellow.
- (a) The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, before holding an election to a Non-official Fellowship, give notice of their intention to elect a person who will be required to take part for a period not exceeding two years in the educational work of the College.
- (b) A Fellow elected in pursuance of such notice shall, during that period, undertake such educational work as may be assigned to him by the President and Fellows.
- (c) The number of Fellows for the time being elected under this provision, together with the Official Fellows, shall not at any time exceed eight.
- 7. The election of a person not already a Fellow to an Official Elections Fellowship may be made either after examination or without Fellowexamination as the President and Fellows shall from time to time ships. determine; provided that, when such an election is made without examination, it shall be made only at a Stated General Meeting or at a Meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat. The President and Fellows may elect any person who in their judgment shall be qualified for the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar of the College, and the person elected shall be admitted to be an actual Fellow immediately after his election, if he then holds one of those offices, and, if he do not, then immediately after he shall have been appointed to one of them.

The College may make remuneration to a Fellow elected under this Clause in respect of any such work as aforesaid required of him by the College.

12. Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being Marriage then married, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such and Residence of marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his Official election. Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the Fellows. College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least three unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms. So long as that number is complete, an Official Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as a Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar.

13. The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, by a Fellows in majority of those present and voting at any Stated General Meeting, and either with or without previous public notice or examination, elect to a Fellowship, either Official or Non-official, a person in Holy Orders of the Church of England who appears to them eminently qualified to give religious instruction, or a person so qualified who is willing to take Holy Orders within one year after his election.

XIV .-- Repeal of Existing Statutes.

- 1. The existing Statutes of the College, and the Ordinance framed by the Commissioners for the purposes of the Statute 17 & 18 Vict. c. 81, in relation to the College, and all amendments of the said Statutes and Ordinance respectively heretofore made are hereby repealed, without prejudice nevertheless to any right acquired, liability incurred, or thing done thereunder, or any repeal effected thereby.
- 2. The existing Bylaws and Regulations of the College, so far as they are not repugnant to these Statutes, shall continue in force until and except in so far as they may be repealed or varied by the College under the powers herein contained.

XV.—Supplemental and Temporary Provisions.

- 1. Subject to the provisions of clause 4 of this Statute, these Vested Statutes shall operate without prejudice to any right or interest interests. possessed by any person by virtue of his having, before they come into operation, become a member of the College or been elected to any College emolument or acquired a vested right to be elected thereto. But no such person shall, unless he agrees to place himself under these Statutes, as herein-after mentioned, be entitled by virtue of them, to any greater rights than he would have had if these Statutes had not been made.
- 2. The existing President may at any time, with the consent of Existing the College at a Stated General Meeting, by a Declaration of President. consent in writing recorded and preserved in the College, place himself under these Statutes and shall thenceforth hold his office on the same terms and subject to the same conditions in all respects as if he had been elected to the office under these Statutes.
- 3. The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, at any Transfer-Stated General Meeting by resolution transfer, with his own ence of existing consent, any existing Fellow who is a Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar to Fellows. an Official Fellowship tenable under these Statutes, on such terms as to precedence, stipend, duration of tenure and otherwise as the President and Fellows may determine: provided that such terms do not as regards stipend or tenure exceed the maximum amount or duration allowed by these Statutes, and that for the purpose of qualification for a pension not more than one half of any period of service anterior to the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council shall be reckoned in the case of a person so transferred.
- 4. The foregoing Clauses 1, 2, 3, shall not apply to any person Limited who at the time when these Statutes come into operation holds an Tenures. emolument within the College, subject to the condition that his tenure of such emolument shall from and after the approval by Her Majesty in Council of new Statutes to be made by the Commissioners in relation to such emolument be subject to such new Statutes. Every such person shall hold his emoluments subject in all respects to these Statutes, and being a Fellow, shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship during the residue of the time and on the terms for and on which he would have been entitled to hold it if these Statutes had been in force at the time of his election and he had then been elected to a Non-official Fellowship tenable under them.

These Statutes are made wholly for Trinity College within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, Section 30.

3. Except under Clauses 10 and 13 of this Statute no person shall be eligible to a Fellowship who shall not have passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or for any degree that may be hereafter created by the University, for the attainment of which a course of residence and study shall be prescribed; and no person shall be eligible who shall be in possession of any benefice, property, pension, or effice, which if acquired after election would disqualify him from continuing to be a Fellow.

Election.

- 4. Whenever a Fellowship shall fall vacant, an election to such Fellowship shall be held within a year of the day of its so falling vacant, unless it be suspended by the President and Fellows under the powers herein contained.
- 5. The election of Ordinary Fellows shall take place on days to be appointed by the President and Fellows; and thirty days at least before every day of election, notice of every intended election, of the number of vacancies to be filled up, and of the conditions of election, shall be given by the President in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity.

Examina-

6. The intellectual qualifications of the candidates for Ordinary Fellowships shall be tested by an examination in such subjects connected with the studies of the University as the President and Fellows shall determine; provided that the system of examinations shall be such as to render Fellowships accessible, from time to time, to excellence in every branch of knowledge for the time being recognised in the Schools of the University; and the Examination shall three times at least in every seven vacancies have special reference to the subjects recognised in one or more of the Final Schools of the University other than the School of Literæ Humaniores. The President and Fellows shall elect that candidate, who, after such examination, shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of religion, learning, education, and research.

7. Whenever there shall not be any duly qualified candidate Postponefor a vacant Ordinary Fellowship, whom the electors shall judge ment. to be of sufficient merit for election, the election shall be postponed to some other day, to be fixed by the President and Fellows for the purpose, not more than six months after the day originally fixed; and every such postponed election shall be held and conducted in the same manner, and after the same previous notice, as if there had been no postponement.

8. Every person elected to an Ordinary Fellowship shall, before Probation. being admitted an actual Fellow, undergo probation for one year from the day of his election inclusive, and no longer; and at the end of such year shall be admitted to an actual Fellowship, if found fit to be a Fellow of the College in the judgment of the President and Fellows. A person admitted to probation shall not, during the year of probation, be entitled to take any part in the government of the College or in the administration of its property, or to vote at any College meeting or election, but shall receive the same emoluments as if he had been admitted an actual Fellow.

9. Every Ordinary Fellow (not elected under clause 13 of this Fellow-Statute) who shall be instituted to an ecclesiastical benefice, or ships shall become entitled either by descent or devolution, or by virtue property, of any testamentary or other gift or settlement to property, or to &c. any government pension, or be admitted to any office tenable for life or during good behaviour (not being an academical office within the University of Oxford), or to any office in the permanent Civil Service of the State, and who shall retain such benefice, property, pension, or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution, accession, or admission thereto, shall, if the net annual value of such ecclesiastical benefice, clear of deductions

(except for property or income tax) shall exceed five hundred pounds, or shall exceed three hundred pounds if the benefice be in the gift of the College, or if the net annual income derivable by him from such property, pension, or office, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources (including or not including an ecclesiastical benefice) clear of deductions, except as aforesaid, shall exceed five hundred pounds, vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of such twelve salarder months, or in the case of a

Rank.

14. The rank which every person hereafter to be elected to a Fellowship shall hold and enjoy in the College, shall be determined according to the date of his admission to such Fellowship.

Emolument.

- 15. The emolument of a Fellowship shall be 200l. per annual clear of income tax and inclusive of all allowances save as hereinafter mentioned. Every Official Fellow who is a Tutor or Lecturer may in respect of his services as such, receive out of the Corporate Revenues a further payment not exceeding 100l. per annum in addition to the said sum of 200l., and to such payment (if any) as may be assigned to him out of the Tuition Fund herein-after mentioned.
- 16. No Fellowship, other than the Fellowships annexed to the Professorship of Arabic and to that of Mechanics and Civil Engineering, shall be tenable with a Headship or Fellowship in any other College within the University (except a Fellowship without emolument).

Depriva-

17. If at any time it shall appear that any Fellow has been guilty of grave misconduct or immorality, or of contumacious disobedience to the Statutes or Bylaws of the College, the President shall, upon the request of any three or more of the Fellows, et may if he think fit, without such request, convene a meeting of the President and Fellows for the consideration of the matter; and a majority of the President and Fellows present at such meeting may present a petition to the Visitor, setting forth the circumstances of the case, and praying the Visitor to inquire into the truth of them; and the Visitor shall institute such inquiry accordingly. And if, upon such inquiry, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that such Fellow has been guilty of grave misconduct or immorality, or of contumacious disobedience to the Statutes or Bylaws of the College, the Visitor may deprive him of his Fellowship.

18. It shall be lawful for the President and Fellows, at Stated Honorary General Meetings, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of Fellowthose present, to elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships within the College. Persons so elected shall be termed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as Fellows, or to receive any emolument whatever, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the President and Fellows shall from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereto, may also be determined by the President and Fellows from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not be counted among the Fellows of the College, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College.

STATUTES OF WADHAM COLLEGE, OXFORD.

Preamble.

The Society of Wadham College was founded on the sixteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord 1612, by Dorothy Wadham, widow of Nicholas Wadham, of Merifield in the county of Somerset, Esquire, to be a College of Students, 'ad laudem gloriam, et honorem Omnipotentis Dei, bonarum literarum incrementum, ac communem hujus regni utilitatem,' by virtue of Letters Patent granted to her by King James the First on the twentieth day of December, in the eighth year of his reign. By these Letters Patent the Society was incorporated under the name of 'Gardianus Socii et Scholares Collegii Wadhami in Universitate Oxoniensi ex fundatione Nicolai Wadham et Dorotheæ uxoris ejus.'

STATUTE I.

The Constitution of the College.

The College shall consist of a Warden and such number of Fellows and Scholars as is in these Statutes appointed.

The Government of the College shall be vested in the Warden and Fellows.

STATUTE II.

The Warden.

- 1. The election of the Warden shall be vested in all actual Qualifica-Fellows of the College present at the meeting for the election. They shall elect the person, being a Master of Arts of the University, or a Doctor in one of the superior Faculties, and not less than thirty years of age, who in their judgment shall be most fit to be Warden of the College, as a place of religion, learning, and education.
- 2. A Meeting for the election of a Warden shall be held in Election. the Hall of the College within forty-two days after a vacancy shall have occurred; unless the vacancy shall occur on some day between the fifteenth day of June and the sixteenth day of September, in which case the Sub-Warden (subject to any Bylaw in force for the time being), shall have power to defer the Meeting to any day not later than the twenty-seventh day of October next following. The Sub-Warden shall appoint a day and hour for the meeting for the election, and shall send notice thereof to every Fellow at his usual place of address at least twenty days before the day of such meeting.
- 3. The Sub-Warden, or in his absence the Senior Fellow present, shall preside at the Meeting. The Warden shall be elected by an absolute majority of the Fellows present and voting. The votes shall be given openly by word of mouth, and the result shall be declared by the Sub-Warden. If at the first voting no person obtain an absolute majority, the votes shall be taken again. If at the second voting no person obtain an absolute majority, votes having been given for more than two persons, it shall be determined by the votes of a simple majority concurring in the same vote (though not a majority of all those present and voting), which of such persons shall be withdrawn; and this process shall be repeated, if necessary, until the number of persons to be voted for shall be reduced to two. The votes shall then be taken again. In case of the votes being equally divided between two persons, either for the purpose of withdrawal, or for that of election, then, if the Sub-Warden be one of the two, he shall in the one case be preferred, and not withdrawn, and in the other shall be declared elected; otherwise he shall give a casting vote. In his absence the Senior Fellow present, who is not one of the two persons between whom the votes are equally divided, shall in either of the aforesaid cases give a casting vote. The Meeting may be adjourned from day to day, if necessary.

Admission.

4. As soon as conveniently may be after the election of a Warden the person elected shall be admitted by the Sub-Warden, or the Senior Fellow present, after having made a declaration to the effect that ha ly perform the duties of his office, and obey the ylaws of the College in force for the time being. um of such declaration, and of the place and ti aking thereof, signed by the Warden, Sub-Warden present, shall be kept among the records of the Co

8. The Warden shall be allowed to hold a Professorship or other University office, provided that, if the income of such sity offices. Professorship or other University office, the Vice-Chancellorship excepted, together with the income of the Wardenship, amount to more than 1,800l., he shall in that case receive only such portion of the income of the Wardenship as shall, together with the income of the Professorship or other University office, amount to the sum of 1,800l. annually.

- 9. The Warden shall be entitled to hold his office for life, Tenure. subject to the provision for deprivation contained in these Statutes.
- 10. If at any time the Warden shall become permanently in-Retirecapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor may, ment and on the petition of the Warden, presented with the consent of a majority of the Fellows present at a College Meeting specially summoned, direct that the Warden shall be permitted to retire from his office with such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Visitor shall deem suitable to the circumstances of the

If no such petition shall have been presented by the Warden, the Visitor may, if he think fit, on the petition of a majority of not less than two-thirds of the Fellows present at a College Meeting specially summoned, and after inquiry held by him, declare that the Warden has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, and may direct that the Wardenship shall be deemed to be vacant at the expiration of a time to be fixed by the order; and the Fellows shall thereupon proceed to the election of a new Warden pursuant to these The Visitor shall by the same order assign to the Warden on his ceasing to hold office such a pension, not exceeding 500l. per annum, as the Visitor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case.

It shall be the duty of the Sub-Warden, on a requisition presented to him by not fewer than three Fellows, to give special notice to the Warden and all the Fellows, not less than a fortnight before the day appointed for such Meeting, that the question, whether such a petition shall be presented, will be brought forward; and the Warden shall give the like notice when he himself desires to present such a petition as aforesaid to the No such question shall be entertained at any Meeting without such notice.

11. Any pension assigned to a retired Warden, under the last preceding clause, shall be provided for and paid as follows; that is to say:-Three fifth parts thereof shall be charged upon and deducted from the stipend of his successor in the office of Warden, and two fifth parts shall be charged upon the general revenues of the College.

Depriva-

12. If the Warden shall be guilty of any grave immorality, or misconduct in his office, or shall become bankrupt, he may be deprived of his office by the Visitor, after due inquiry held, upon the petition of a majority of the Fellows present at a Meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat. The Sub-Ward receipt of a requisition signed by not fewer than five shall be bound to call such night's notice thereof.

Candidates educated at the said School at Hampton Lucy shall be entitled to a preference in the election to the said Scholarships.
- 4. In elections to the Scholarships on the foundations of John Meeke and William Lucy, no person shall be entitled to preference in respect of his having been educated at the Free Grammar School of Worcester, or the School at Hampton Lucy, as the case may be, unless he shall have been educated at such school for two years at least last preceding the election, or last preceding his matriculation at the University.
- 5. Whenever there shall be no Candidate for a Scholarship on the foundations of John Meeke or William Lucy who shall be entitled to preference in respect of having been educated at the Free Grammar School of Worcester, or the school at Hampton

Lucy, as the case may be, and who in the judgment of the Governing Body of Hertford College shall be of sufficient merit, it shall be lawful for the Governing Body to throw such Scholarship open for that turn to general competition.

6. The Scholarships on the foundations of Henry Lusby, John Meeke, William Lucy, and Dr. Macbride shall be tenable for three years, or such longer time, not exceeding five years in all, as the Governing Body shall,

The number of Exhibitioners on each of the said foundations, the amounts to be paid to the Exhibitioners respectively, and the period during which the said Exhibitions shall be tenable, shall be such as shall from time to time be determined by the Principal.

- 9. The election of the Scholars and Exhibitioners herein-before mentioned, their discipline, and the conditions of their tenure of the said Scholarships and Exhibitions shall, save in so far as is herein otherwise expressly provided, be determined and regulated by the general statutes of the College in force from time to time.
- 10. The provisions herein contained shall be in lieu of and shall supersede the ordinances in relation to certain of the said Scholarships and Exhibitions framed by the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Act 17 and 18 Vict., cap. 81, and the provisions or terms of the foundations of the said Scholarships and Exhibitions, provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the interests of any Scholars or Exhibitioners heretofore elected.

Made by us, the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College, in the University of Oxford.

As witness our Common Seal this 10th day of December, 1878.
